From the Pastor's Pen

Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time: Building Barns, Postponing Life (Luke 12:13-21)

Comedian Jack Benny, from TV's Golden Age, had a skit which illustrated how we place money ahead of everything. He is walking down the street when suddenly he is approached by an armed robber, "Your money or your life!" There is a long pause. Jack does nothing. The robber impatiently queries, "Well?" Jack replies, "Don't rush me, I'm thinking it over."

This weekend; as we reflect briefly on the 18th Sunday's Gospel, I would like us to think a few moments about our money and our life. Let's see what Jesus has to say about these two subjects. The background for our story is an incident that occurred in Galilee as Jesus was teaching to a large crowd. A young man called out from the crowd and said, "Rabbi, tell my brother to divide the inheritance of our father." Now Jewish law clearly prescribed that, at the death of a father, the elder son received 2/3 of the inheritance, and the younger son received 1/3. This is obviously a younger son who is complaining about the inherent unfairness of it all. Nothing will divide brothers and sisters more than dividing up an estate. So it was then, and so it is now. Jesus refused to get involved in a petty family squabble. Jesus was concerned, however, with the larger implications of preoccupation with the things of this world. He said, "Beware of greed, for life does not consist of things possessed. The sum total of a person's life is more than their financial portfolio."

He then illustrated this point by telling a story. There was once a man who had an unbroken run of prosperity. In today's language, he had successfully played the commodities market. So prosperous did he become that his barns could not hold all of his crops. His solution was to tear down these barns and build bigger and better barns. Then, with his financial security in hand, he could sit back and truly enjoy life. His philosophy was eat, drink, and be merry. Truth be told, when we hear this story, we find ourselves rather envious of this man. A financially successful man—we see him as savvy and wise. Yet Jesus concluded the story by saying that this man was a fool.

The issue before us this weekend is then, what did this man do wrong? To answer that question, we must understand that this is not a parable about money. It is a parable about values and what is important in life. With that in mind, we can see about four areas that made him a fool. (a) He had full barns but an empty heart. (b) He overestimated himself. (c) He forgot about the real business of life, and (d) He forgot about time.

No matter how wisely, skillfully, and successfully a man has labored, he can't take his wealth with him when he dies. Others will inherit the fruit of his toil (as in our first reading). To make matters worse, what he leaves behind may tear his family apart. An inheritance can be a blessing or a curse. In the Gospel, we see two brothers fighting over an inheritance. How sad to see people driven by greed and envy, quarrelling over plenty.

A sign outside of church announced: "Don't wait for the hearse to take you to church." Today's Gospel shows us the folly of growing rich with this world's goods, and not growing rich in a spiritual way. We all know we won't take it with us. Billy Graham once pointed out, "You never see a hearse pulling a U-Haul trailer." When the richest man in a town died, the local news reporter asked his pastor, "How much did he leave." The pastor replied, "All of it!!"

I'll close with the story of an American tourist who paid a visit to the renowned holy man in Europe: Rabbi Hofetz Chaim. The American was impressed the wise man lived so simply — in a single room with only books and a table and chair. "Rabbi! Where is your furniture?" asked the tourist. "Where is yours?" the rabbi asked. The American tourist answered, "My furniture? I'm only passing through here." The wise rabbi responded, "So am I!

The Center of a Meaningful Life

Today's readings invite us to reflect upon some of life's deepest questions, and to explore the meaning of faith. We hear of the universal human search for meaning in our lives in the book of Ecclesiastes. In Luke's Gospel, we hear Jesus' parable about one who foolishly seeks ultimate security through the accumulation of wealth. In Colossians, faith in the crucified and resurrected Christ is proclaimed as the path to a richly purposeful and meaningful life. The path of Christian faith places our work, our sufferings, and our limitations within the larger picture of God's purposes for all of us. In Jesus, God is revealed as our companion in human suffering and limitation. God's love is at the center of a meaningful life. We place our trust in this loving God, who created us to share in this love, and to share this love with others.

A NEW CHANCE TO WIN EVERY WEEK!

DON'T FORGET TO WRITE!

Safe travels to all of our parishioners and loved ones this summer, and please don't forget about us! We rely greatly on your support and often have difficulty making ends meet when summer Mass attendance declines. If you're going to be away, you can place your weekly envelopes in the Sunday collection or leave them at the Parish Office before you go or upon your return. Another easy option would be to visit www.givecentral.org and automate your contributions either through a regularly scheduled direct withdrawal or a credit card transaction. You can even play the 50-50 this way! Happy trails!

- Please note, the date for our Freshmen Blessing and Send-off has changed. This special mass for recent grads will take place at 10:30 a.m. at St. Ann on Sunday, August 7. Be sure to register your high school and college freshmen so we can prepare (see page 5 for more information).

- Do you have any information about St. James the Greater school? We need history, photos, class lists, yearbooks, etc. for our new website. Please contact jgray@allsoulscatholicparish.org if you can be of any assistance. The new website is nearly complete, but this information is still missing.
- During the early days of COVID isolation, many people began making their weekly contributions electronically. It was easy to get used to not having to write a check or search for cash to put in those donation envelopes. At long last, our Give Central account finally reflects our new name and identity! We can even accept your 50/50 contributions this way. Sign up today at www.givecentral.org/location/100, or scan the QR Code inside the front cover of the bulletin for easy text-to-give.
- Looking for a periodic volunteer opportunity? We are in need of assistance in the office answering phones from time to time. Please call 708.895.6700 with your availability and contact information if you would be interested in filling in once in a while.

Every country that celebrates the Feast of the Assumption has its own traditions:

- In many Eastern countries, ladies named (or with names derived from) Mary welcome everyone to their homes in honor of the Blessed Mother. Celebrations are marked with colorful festivals, processions, special recipes incorporated into family dinners, and the tradition of blessing the harvest.
- Parades, marching bands, costumes, dancing, and other family events take place in Spain.
- Partial or complete abstinence from fruit is observed in Sicily in honor of Mother Mary for the first two weeks of the month. Then all types of fruits are blessed and enjoyed on the Feast Day.
- In France, a statue of Mary is carried in procession, accompanied by pealing bells and hymns sung in her honor.
- Another popular custom is the blessing of the harvest. Before the Reformation, clergy would bless the farms, orchards, and countryside in all Christian countries.
- A Polish tradition in many of our Archdiocesan parishes was to bring flowers grown in one's own garden to honor the Blessed Mother. Some also brought home-grown fruits and vegetables to be blessed and then taken home.

On the weekend of the Feast of the Assumption, we will honor the Blessed Mother by bringing flowers from our own gardens. Vases of water will surround the Blessed Mother at both churches the weekend of August 13-14. Please join us in this celebration by bringing your flowers!

The brand new Ministry & Events Coordination Team was started BY parishioners FOR parishioners! We will serve as a hub for parish ministries and a bridge between ministry and event volunteers and parish office staff. As our first endeavor, we are actively seeking collaborators for two social events because we need to have some FUN, time and date TBD: BYOP (Bring Your Own Picnic) and a dinner party. If you are interested in joining in any way on these very important first steps to revitalizing our parish community, please reach out to Kim Jacobson and Jeff Rosinia in person, via email at MECTAllSouls@gmail.com, or by leaving your contact information at the parish office, 708-895-6700, Attention: Ministry & Event Coordination Team, and we will give you a call. We are so excited to team up with you to bring some life and energy to All Souls!

We must be careful not to become greedy or let the things we own become too important.
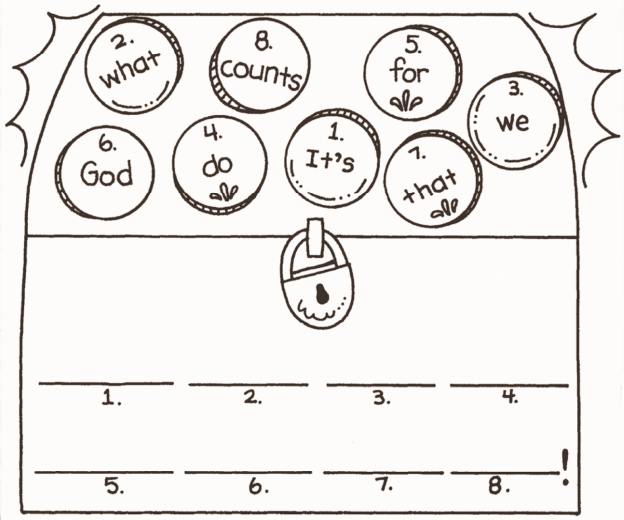
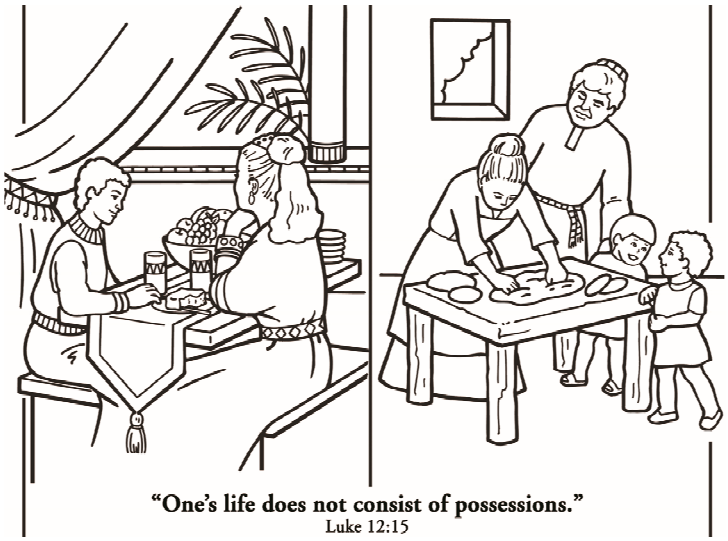
Instead we should become rich in what matters to God.
Arrange the coins in the treasure chest by number.
It's important to remember this!





"One's life does not consist of possessions."

CATHOLIC CORNER

TEACH US TO PRAY

We learned about prayer of thanksgiving and prayer of petition. This week we will discuss three more: intercession, praise, and blessing and adoration.

Intercession is another word for petition, or asking, but with one difference. Prayer of petition asks for things we need. Prayer of intercession asks that the needs of another be met. We hear prayers of intercession during Mass. They might include prayers for leaders of Church and state, for people who are hungry, for people living with the threat of war or violence, for people who are sick or dying. When you tell someone you will pray for them, that is a great gift and a responsibility. Who would you include in your prayers of intercession?

Prayers of praise give us the chance to look toward God. In these prayers we recognize how great God is and we say so. A prayer called the Divine Praises is usually pray after Benediction. It includes praises like "Blessed be God," "Blessed be his holy name," and "Blessed be the Holy Spirit." What words would you use to praise God?

The final form of prayer is adoration. The "Glory Be" prayer is a good example of a prayer of adoration.

Fill in the final three forms of prayer in the sections marked with I, P, and A in the circle. Try to use all of these prayers during the week. You can decide to use a different type each day, or you could make a spinner and use it to choose your prayer for the day. Each one of these prayers is a good way to keep connected to God.

Look at what Paul told people to do in Colossians 3:2.
Some of the words are scrambled.
To help you rewrite them correctly,
look at the words in the light bulbs.
