FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Who knew that when Moses led the Israelites out of slavery it would mean forty years of wandering in the desert before they were able to enter the Promised Land? Many of us experience periods of wandering in our life. Perhaps we made some poor judgment calls in our younger days, or maybe as adult children we returned home to live because of struggling with substance abuse, or unemployment, or a divorce. Or maybe we fell away from Church for a bit. This is nothing new. The second reading calls us to be new creations in Christ, to put away our old selves, to be transformed; and in the Gospel we hear the beautiful story of the Prodigal Son. Each of these calls for us to move, and grow, and leave old ways behind.

TESTING THE BOUNDARIES

Some of the first words a two-year-old might say are "Do by self!" It is almost a rite of passage for teenagers to test their parents as much as they can. Every parent who ever lay awake in bed at night waiting to hear the sound of the child pulling the car into the garage or opening the door knows at least as much about praying vigils as any nun in a convent. This is a deep and earnest prayer, and the parents can barely breathe until their child comes home. Usually when we think of the story of the Prodigal Son, we think of the feeling of guilt the son had as he realized how much he had messed things up, or we feel the injustice that the older brother felt, because he wasn't the rebel child leaving the home.

WELCOME HOME

What we don't often remember in the story of the Prodigal Son is that God is there welcoming, urging us on. A few years ago there was a funeral for a young man who died of a drug overdose within days of coming out of a treatment center. Many of his young friends came but expected fire and brimstone, and to be told what a bad child that boy was. Instead, the priest preached about God loving this child so much that perhaps the only way God could protect him was to bring him home. That gentle image of God welcoming him with open arms soothed the broken hearts and unspoken questions that were on many minds. Not every situation is that drastic, but God is calling us home this Lent no matter what mistakes we've made, or how many times we have made them.

Today's Readings: Jos 5:9a, 10–12; Ps 34:2–3, 4–5, 6–7; 2 Cor 5:17–21; Lk 15:1–3, 11–32

2022 Annual Catholic Appeal

Many have inquired how our goal of $55,966 was determined this year, as it seems to be so much higher than what any of us have strived for in the past. The number was calculated based on the 2020-2021 offertory collections from all three churches that now make up All Souls. The goal, therefore, is 7% of that total annual collection, as you will see in the table below.

The new Annual Catholic Appeal theme, "Making all things new … God's promise and our responsibility," is important as we prayerfully consider our support for the Appeal but also important for embracing the life that the Lord wants us to live.

Legacy Name	Unified Name	2020-2021 Offertory Income	2022 Goal (7%)
St. Ann - Lansing		$ 393,265	$ 27,529
St. James - Sauk Village		$ 271,333	$ 18,993
St. John - Glenwood		$ 134,911	$ 9,444
	All Souls Parish	$ 799,509	$ 55,966

The Annual Catholic Appeal is different than a one-time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments. Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

It is not too late to pledge! No gift is ever too small, and all contributions are greatly appreciated. When we surpass our goal, All Souls will receive a rebate check from the donated funds to be used here for our purposes. To make your gift, you can complete the mail-in giving envelope available at church or make a gift online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

- During the early days of COVID isolation, many people began making their weekly contributions electronically. It was easy to get used to not having to write a check or search for cash to put in those donation envelopes. Now at long last, our Give Central account finally reflects our new name and identity! We can even accept your 50/50 contributions this way. Sign up today at www.givecentral.org/location/100, or scan the QR Code on page 5 of the bulletin for easy text-to-give.
- Mark your calendars! Fr. David Krolczyk will celebrate 50 years in the priesthood on May 28. Details to come.

UNITY MASS WEEKEND

Special, Super Duper Early Holiday Edition Bulletin Deadlines

Due to holiday office closures at J.S. Paluch, our bulletin publisher has moved up deadlines for the Palm Sunday and Easter issues. Therefore, the deadline for materials for the April 10 edition is March 28, and content for the April 17 issue is due by April 4. Anything received after those dates will not be able to be accommodated for those weekends. We apologize for any inconvenience and will resume regular 10-day advance deadlines thereafter (April 14 for the April 24 bulletin). Thank you for your understanding and attention!

Today's Readings

First Reading — God's people enter the promised land, observe the Passover, and eat of the produce of the land (Joshua 5:9a, 10-12) or 1 Samuel 16:1b, 6-7, 10-13a.
Psalm — Taste and see the goodness of the Lord (Psalm 34) or Psalm 23.
Second Reading — We are now ambassadors for Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17-21) or Ephesians 5:8-14.
Gospel — We must rejoice when our brother who was dead in sin repents and comes back to life (Luke 15:1-3, 11-32) or John 9:1-41 [1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38].

Lost and Found

The parable of the father and his sons is one of the most familiar of all of Jesus' stories. The father in the parable is lavish in forgiveness and revels in the return of his young son, who was lost and now is found. The older son is also lost—lost in his refusal to forgive, lost in his failure to grasp his father's generous spirit. The Israelites spent many years lost in the desert, seeking the land of milk and honey, yet often failing to seek the God who delivered and fed them. We are sometimes lost as well. We lose sight of the Lord and the Lord's ways. God never loses sight of us, however. God waits, ready for us to come to our senses, ready to welcome us back with open arms.

Religious Education: Ongoing Faith Formation

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Parishioners,

As we hold this season of penitence closely to our spirits, we lift up those in our communities who are suffering, particularly our brothers and sisters in Ukraine, for whom the Holy Father has asked us to pray and fast.

Lent encourages us to be one in heart about the mission with which we are entrusted. We must not also forget that Lent looks forward to the season of Easter, and that this is a season of penitence that we undergo together. In the words of Pope Francis, "Lent is a new beginning, a path leading to the certain goal of Easter, Christ's victory over death. This season urgently calls us to conversion. Christians are asked to return to God 'with all their hearts' (Joel 2:12), to refuse to settle for mediocrity and grow in friendship with the Lord."

This past Sunday our Confirmation candidates came together for a day of reflection. It was a wonderful day in which all of them renewed their commitment. As we all know, our young people are full of life, but they are experiencing many transitions. For some youth, the declining religious participation of their family and the struggles of adolescence can distance them from parish life. However, we certainly know that they have incredible gifts to offer to our parish. We know that the children are the future, and we can all encourage our teens and youth to be more spiritually oriented and develop a relationship with Christ if we follow these core values:

Time— Invest time in our youth by spending both quality and quantity time with them.

Love— Invest in our youth by loving them unconditionally, cheerfully, and faithfully, and expressing that love in appropriate ways.

Prayer— Pray with them faithfully.

Mentoring— We teach by example.

Finally, I ask for prayers not only for our students in the Religious Education program but for all students to be confirmed this year around the world.

In Christ,

Sandra Bustamante, PA/DRE

Estimadas familias, feligreses:

Mientras mantenemos esta temporada de penitencia cerca de nuestros espíritus, animamos a aquellos en nuestras comunidades que están sufriendo, particularmente a nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Ucrania, por quienes el Santo Padre nos ha pedido que oremos y ayunemos.

La Cuaresma nos anima a ser uno en el corazón acerca de la misión que se nos ha confiado. No debemos olvidar también que la Cuaresma es esperar el tiempo de Pascua, y que este es un tiempo de penitencia que pasamos juntos. En palabras del Papa Francisco, "La Cuaresma es un nuevo comienzo, un camino que conduce a la meta segura de la Pascua, la victoria de Cristo sobre la muerte. Este tiempo nos llama urgentemente a la conversión. A los cristianos se les pide que vuelvan a Dios 'con todo su corazón' (Joel 2:12), que se nieguen a conformarse con la mediocridad y crezcan en la amistad con el Señor."

El domingo pasado, nuestros candidatos a la Confirmación se reunieron para un día de reflexión. Fue un gran día en el que todos ellos reafirmaron su compromiso. Como todos sabemos, Nuestros Jóvenes están llenos de vida, pero están experimentando muchas transiciones. Para algunos jóvenes, la disminución de la participación religiosa de su familia en la Iglesia y las luchas de la adolescencia pueden distanciarlos de la vida parroquial. Sin embargo, ciertamente sabemos que tienen dones increíbles que ofrecer a Nuestra vida parroquial.

Todos sabemos que los niños son el futuro y todos podemos alentar a nuestros adolescentes y jóvenes a estar más orientados espiritualmente y desarrollar una relación con Cristo siguiendo estos valores fundamentales:

Tiempo— Invierta tiempo en nuestros jóvenes pasando calidad y cantidad de tiempo con ellos.

Amor—Invertir en nuestra juventud amándolos incondicionalmente, con alegría y fidelidad, y expresando ese amor de manera apropiada.

Oración— Ore con ellos fielmente.

Tutoría— Enseñamos con el ejemplo.

Finalmente, sinceramente pido oraciones no solo por nuestros estudiantes en el programa de Educación Religiosa sino por todos los estudiantes que serán confirmados este año alrededor del mundo.

En Cristo,

Sandra Bustamante, PA/DRE

Fourth Sunday of Lent

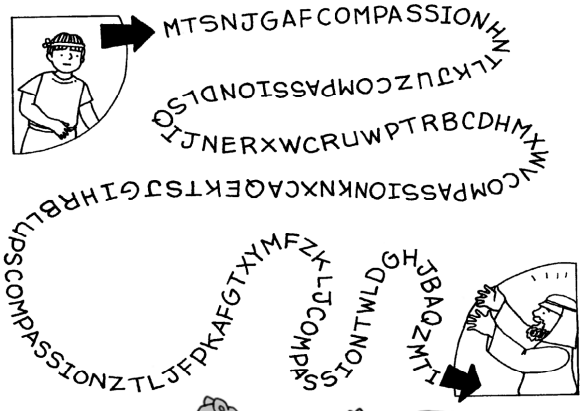
Jesus told a story about a young man who left his father's house (Luke 15:1–3, 11–32).
He foolishly spent all his money,
until he had no food and only the clothes on his back.
He returned home, hoping his father would hire him as a worker.
But his father forgave him and lovingly welcomed his son back!
Follow the letter trail from the son to the overjoyed father.
Highlight a word that appears five times in the trail.



"He was lost and has been found"
Luke 15 : 32

LENTEN COMPANIONS: SIMON, VERONICA, THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

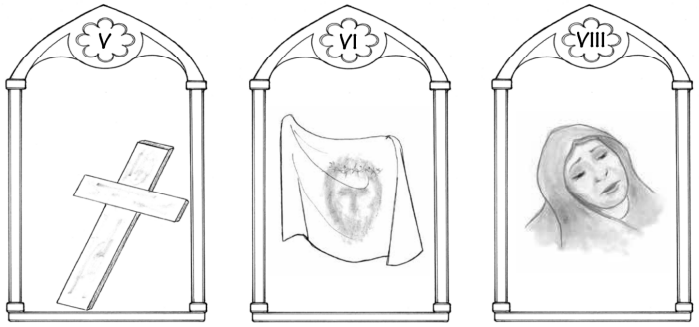
3 weeks to Easter: We travel with Simon, Veronica, and the women of Jerusalem.

Today is called Laetare Sunday. Laetare is Latin for "Rejoice." The entrance antiphon at the beginning of today's Mass (from Isaiah 66:10) begins, "Rejoice, Jerusalem." Lent is half over and we have reason to have hope and rejoice.

Good friends are important. Friends who help us, who stand with us, make hard times easier. The story of Jesus' suffering includes people who helped him. When Jesus was weak and stumbling under the weight of the cross, Simon of Cyrene helped him carry it. Veronica wiped his weary face with her veil. Some women keeping watch along the road wept when they saw Jesus. He felt their love and support and tried to comfort them even in his own suffering. All of these helpers are remembered in the Stations of the Cross: Simon (station 5), Veronica (station 6), and the Women of Jerusalem (station 8).

How can these people be our companions? When we see our friends in need, we can try to be like Simon and help carry their burdens. We can be like Veronica and make them feel better or more comfortable. We can be like the women of Jerusalem: even if we can't make our friends' troubles disappear, we can share their burden of sorrow so they know they are not alone.

One day this week, make a visit to church and find these three stations.
Stand before each one and say a prayer. Think of friends who need your help today.



Jesus came to show people a new way to live.
When our hearts are filled with God's love,
it changes our thoughts and actions.
We become different—kinder, more loving and trusting.
Color only the spaces below that have a heart.
They will show what we become because Jesus loves us.
