FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Isaiah prophesies for the Lord: “Remember not the events of the past, the things of long ago consider not; see, I am doing something new!” One of the most dangerous things that we can do is get stuck in our old ways. As individuals, as parishes, as nations we can say, “We’ve always done it that way,” and miss calls to growth and change. Throughout this Lent and our lives, God continues to call us to life, and we should celebrate that! The psalmist reminds us that “The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy!” Saint Paul realizes this as he explains, “I continue my pursuit toward the goal, the prize of God’s upward calling, in Christ Jesus.” In the Gospel, Jesus offers a new way of looking at a tricky situation and provides a kinder, less judgmental response.

AN AGE-OLD STORY OF JUDGMENT

In our Gospel today we hear an ancient story, but one that feels like it could be taken out of the headlines today. We can be very quick to pass judgment on others, those with different political or cultural backgrounds, or perhaps with a different sexual orientation. Jesus was teaching in the temple, and the scribes and Pharisees did not like the message that he was proclaiming or the popularity he was gaining. When a nearby woman was caught in adultery, they thought it was the perfect chance to trip Jesus up, wondering how he would respond when the Mosaic Law provided clear consequences for such behavior. Many would be able to quote instantly chapter and verse of the law pertaining to the infraction. Instead of answering their question, Jesus turned it back on the accusers: “Let the one among you who is wIthout sin be the first to throw a stone at her.”

DRAWING IN THE SAND

Awaiting the response of those challenging him, Jesus bent over and wrote in the sand. According to scripture scholar John Pilch, this was a simple technique that peasants used to buy time in a discussion or argument. Instead of looking the scribes and pharisees in the eye, he looked down and did his own thing while they all slipped away. The scriptures do not tell us what the woman was doing during this time. But by not looking at her, Jesus gave her a chance to restore her own dignity. He didn’t comment on her innocence or guilt. Rather, he instructed her to go forth and sin no more. It is not our past that matters as much as the choices we make now and in the future. Again and again, God gives us the chance to start our life over. This is our challenge this Lent, to continue to use the opportunities we are given to repent and grow.

A WARM WELCOME TO REV. LARRY DOWLING, OUR 2022 LENTEN MISSION GUIDE!

Fr. Larry is here with us to celebrate our Unity Masses this weekend and to introduce us to our Lenten Mission, which he will be leading. He is the pastor of St. Agatha Parish in Chicago’s North Lawndale community, and currently also serves as Dean of Deanery III-D. He is actively involved in local community organizing efforts, criminal justice reform and restorative justice projects, anti-violence and labor issues throughout the Chicago area.

Please join us for hospitality with Fr. Larry immediately following our Unity Masses at St. Ann on Saturday at 4:00 p.m. and at St. James on Sunday at 10:00 a.m.

- There will be no hospitality after Sunday Mass at St. James on April 10 (2nd Sunday of the month) because it will take place after this week's Unity Mass instead.
- Look for members of Boy Scout Troop 276 after Masses this weekend and next--they will be selling $5 tickets for their all-you-can eat Pancake Breakfast taking place on April 30 at the Lansing American Legion.
- Please note: the Adoration Chapel at St. James will be closed on Good Friday and Holy Saturday. We will resume weekday Adoration on April 18.
- The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. Therefore, on April 24, confessions will be heard in the St. Ann Chapel immediately after the 7:30 a.m. Mass, and the Divine Mercy Service will follow the 10:30 a.m. Mass at St. Ann.
- Mark your calendars! Fr. David Krolczyk will celebrate 50 years in the priesthood on May 28. Details to come.

Something New in Christ

Jesus knew that the scribes and Pharisees were trying to trap Him. They put Him in what seemed to be a no-win situation. Let the woman who was caught in adultery go, and He would have been accused of ignoring the law. Let her be stoned, and He would fail to show mercy toward her, contradicting His life's message. Jesus' response teaches three crucial lessons: none of us is free of sin; we are not the ultimate judges of others; Jesus is the mercy of God, in whom we can always trust. In Christ, God does something new. When we give our hearts to Christ, we have the hope of new life, a life in which mercy reigns.

Religious Education: Ongoing Faith Formation

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Parishioners,

God's never-ending love for us. Where would we be if Christ's work lasted only a few years? Where would we be if one day our Father rejected us because He could once more remember our sins?

In the Gospel of John 10:27-30, Jesus says "My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. And I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand. I and My Father are one."

Eternal salvation: the great promise of God. Is there any greater hope than to know that our sins are buried deeper than the sea, and never to be found? Can there be better news than to know the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ stands forever?

Our Savior really has done a great thing, but His work is not finished. The cross is not the final touch to the Father's master plan. Yes, it is the greatest display of the Father's love, but by no means is it the end of the Father's love. His will is more than a prayer of forgiveness and repentance for all who would believe in Jesus.

This is how the plan continues. Through our obedience in faith, the Father continues the work of love our Savior started. And no one can understand the depths of God's love.

Finally, I would like to invite you to walk the Stations of the Cross together as a family each Friday at 7:00 p.m. at either St Ann or St. James.

Praying for you,

Sandra Bustamante, PA/DRE

Estimada comunidad de fe:

El amor infinito de Dios por nosotros. ¿Dónde estaríamos si la obra de Cristo durara unos pocos años?

¿Dónde estaríamos si un día nuestro Padre nos rechazara porque pudiera recordar una vez más nuestro pecado?

En el Evangelio de Juan 10:27-30, Jesús dice: "Mis ovejas oyen mi voz, y yo las conozco, y ellas me siguen. Y yo les doy vida eterna, y no perecerán jamás; nadie las arrebatará de mi mano. Mi Padre, que me las ha dado, es mayor que todos; y nadie las puede arrebatar de la mano de mi Padre. Yo y Mi Padre somos uno."

Salvación eterna: la gran promesa de Dios. ¿Hay mayor esperanza que saber que nuestros pecados están enterrados más profundamente que el mar y nunca serán encontrados? ¿Puede haber mejores noticias que saber que la muerte y resurrección de Jesucristo permanece para siempre?

Nuestro Salvador realmente ha hecho una gran cosa, pero Su obra no ha terminado. La cruz no es el toque final al plan maestro del Padre. Sí, es la mayor muestra del amor del Padre, pero de ninguna manera es el fin del amor del Padre. Su voluntad es más que una oración de perdón y arrepentimiento para todos los que creen en Jesús.

Así continúa el plan. A través de nuestra obediencia en la fe, el Padre continúa la obra de amor que comenzó nuestro Salvador. Y nadie puede comprender la profundidad del amor de Dios.

Finalmente, me gustaría invitarlos cada viernes a las 7:00 pm a caminar juntos en familia las Estaciones de la Cruz. En el lugar de culto de St. Ann o St. James.

Rezando por ti,

Sandra Bustamante, PA/DRE

Please Join Us for Stations of the Cross Every Friday During Lent at Either St. Ann or St. James at 7:00 p.m.

On Good Friday, April 15, the annual Community Way of the Cross from St. Ann to Trinity Lutheran will take place at Noon, and Stations of the Cross at St. James will be at 3:00 p.m.

You are Invited to Holy Week at All Souls Catholic Parish

Palm Sunday, April 10

- We begin Holy Week by celebrating Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem, where a large crowd gathered and laid palm branches across His path, welcoming Him as Savior and King. Palms will be distributed at all Masses: Saturday 4:00 p.m. at St. Ann and 5:30 at St. James; Sunday 7:30 & 10:30 a.m. at St. Ann and 9:00 a.m. at St. James.

Holy Thursday, April 14

- Holy Thursday is the commemoration of the Last Supper of Jesus Christ, when He established the sacrament of Holy Communion prior to His arrest and crucifixion. It also commemorates His institution of the priesthood. Holy Thursday Masses will be at 5:00 p.m. at St. James and at 7:00 p.m. at St. Ann, with Eucharistic Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament at St. Ann until Midnight, where we are invited to spend time in the presence of the Eucharist just as the Disciples kept a vigil with Christ.

Good Friday, April 15

- The events of Good Friday are observed in the 14-step Community Way of the Cross that will be presented on a walk down Ridge Road in Lansing, beginning at Noon at St. Ann and culminating in a community prayer service at Trinity Lutheran. Many of us have been attending Stations of the Cross every Friday during Lent, but this live Way of the Cross is a completely different experience—invite the whole family! Additionally, the traditional Stations of the Cross will be presented in Church at St. James at 3:00 p.m.
- On Good Friday, we will commemorate the Crucifixion of Jesus Christ at 3:00 p.m. at St. Ann and 7:00 p.m. at St. James with a service that includes the Veneration of the Cross. Traditionally, there is no Mass and no celebration of the Eucharist. Church bells are silent. Altars are left bare. The solemn, muted atmosphere is preserved until the Easter Vigil.

Holy Saturday, April 16

- Bring your Easter baskets and the food that will be prepared for your Easter meal to these special blessings that will be held at 11:00 a.m. at St. James and 1:00 p.m. at St. Ann.
- The Easter Vigil in the Holy Night will begin at 7:30 p.m. at St. Ann and 8:00 p.m. at St. James

Of course, no one could do that.

CATHOLIC CORNER

LENTEN COMPANION: ST. JOHN BAPTISTE DE LA SALLE

2 weeks to Easter:
We travel with St. John Baptiste de la Salle.

Today we remember the life and death of our Lenten companion St. John Baptiste de la Salle. Born in 1651 in Rheims, France, he died on Good Friday, April 7, 1719. John spent his life teaching the poor at a time when only rich families were able to send their children to school. He started a school for boys and began a program for training teachers.

At that time children were taught in Latin. If you didn't understand Latin you couldn't go to school to learn. John encouraged his teachers in France to teach students in their own language—French. Although he came from a rich family, he gave away his share of his family's fortune to the poor and hungry. He opened the first teacher's college as well as many schools for the poor in several different cities. John's group of teachers became known as the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

How can John be our companion? His story teaches us how important a Christian education is for everyone. What John did wasn't easy, but he never gave up. Our teachers today do the same for us. St. John helps us to appreciate the education we have been given.

This week take some time to thank your teachers for their hard work. As part of your Lenten fast, spend more time studying and less time on social media.

Fill in the areas on this report card in which you are doing well and note the ones in which you need help to do better.

EASTER JOY AND A SERVANT GOD WITH FR. MICHAEL JENNRICH

Date: Monday, April 4

Time: 9:00 a.m. – Noon Fee: $25

Jesus called the religious and political leaders of His time hypocrites and fools. At times, even some of His early disciples were described in this manner. Are His followers today any different? Have we taken to heart the teachings of Jesus? Come explore in this morning of reflection the "mythology" and "theology" of our Lenten Journey which leads us to Easter Joy. Come discover the impact the Easter Story still has on the world today.

Facilitator: Michael Jennrich, OFM has served in a variety of ministries, including street ministry, retreat work, parish work, campus ministry and hospice chaplaincy. He uses his gifts of singing, spinning, weaving and storytelling to accompany others on their journey to self-discovery. He currently serves as chaplain for the University of St. Francis in Joliet, IL.
