Fourth Sunday of Easter:
Christ the Good Shepherd (John 10:1-21)

Today's readings on this fourth Sunday of Easter offer us a glimpse into the heart of our loving Savior. He is the Good Shepherd, and we can confidently place our trust in Him as we live the stewardship way of life, sharing our gift of life as good shepherds to each other.

In both the first and second readings, we find Peter embracing his role as leader of the newborn Church. In our first reading from Acts, he exhorts the crowd, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." We then read that the ones who accepted his message were baptized that day. Peter simply proposed the Good News to them and then left them free to accept or reject the call to repentance and belief in Christ, which is ultimately a call from God. We can find many parallels in this passage to the call to a stewardship way of life. We, too, are free to accept or reject God's call to discipleship. We can keep our time, talents, and treasure for ourselves, purely to serve our own interests. We are free to make that choice.

Our second reading, again featuring St. Peter, offers further motivation for embracing this way of life. Peter reminds us that Christ, "bore our sins in his body upon the cross." And that, "by his wounds you have been healed. For we had gone astray like sheep but... have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of our souls." Such an incredibly poignant description of the love our Savior has for us and the kind of relationship He desires to have with us — as shepherd and guardian of our souls.

This endearing image of Jesus as shepherd, and His personal love for each one of us, is expanded in our Gospel passage from John, through the words of Jesus Himself. Here we read Jesus' description of Himself as the "Good Shepherd." He says of Himself, "The sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice."

This aspect of our Lord's tender and personal love for each one of us is yet another reason to embrace the stewardship way of life — in the offering of our time, talent, and treasure to Him, we can express our gratitude to Him for the incomprehensible love He has for us. Embracing the stewardship way of life certainly requires trust on our part. But Christ has proven Himself worthy of our trust. He "bore our sins in His body." He calls Himself our shepherd and He offers Himself as the guardian of our souls. He has withheld nothing of Himself and His goodness from us. He would never ask anything of us that would bring us harm.

Who needs a shepherd these days? That's a good question. In our gospel text, Jesus asserts, "I am the good shepherd." Sheep are not part of most of our everyday lives today, but the imagery from biblical times is far more than simply a story from the past. Gathering from what I read, a sheep is about the dumbest creature on four legs, a helpless beast when left to itself. It cannot find green pasture by itself; it must be led there. It cannot sense water, and therefore must be led to it. A sheep strays all over the place. A sheep can't find the way back home by itself. Nor is a sheep prepared to defend itself. It is easy prey for an attacking pack of other animals such as wolves.

Now it doesn't take much imagination to make the transference today, does it? Man, like a sheep, when left to his own nature, is the dumbest thing on two legs. The sheep is a picture of the nature of our spiritual being. Separated from God by our sin, we, too, are dumb, helpless, and hopeless. Left to ourselves, or listening to the false shepherds, we would blindly stray right into the wolfish jaws of hell. Straying from the Father's house we cannot, by ourselves, find our way back to the Father's door. Talk about dumb sheep? Then talk about dumb man! Lost, without a leader, a guide, a way shower. Lost because of sin. Eternally lost! Who needs a shepherd these days? Who else? We do! We need God's "Good Shepherd" very badly, very desperately.

Into our times and into our moments comes the voice of God through his only Son. Look, you lost and hopeless children of the Father, dumb as sheep. I am your shepherd. I came into this world to seek and save you who are lost. I laid down My life for you; you who are as lost as a sheep without a shepherd. Here, you see, is the love and compassion of our Father. A sacrificial love which would send His unblemished Lamb to bleed a way out of sin for us on a cross. One sent by the Father to lead and restore us to the Father's house forever.

And even today, though we may never see a flock of sheep, the Good Shepherd (the guardian of our souls, as Peter called him) is still at work seeking and saving that which is lost. "My sheep hear my voice," Christ stated, "and I know them, and they follow me." Strange. As dumb an animal as a sheep is, did you know it can always recognize its shepherd's distinctive call? Sheep from various flocks might be placed for protection into a common pen during the night. At daybreak the various shepherds would come and call their sheep forth, and miraculously, they could separate themselves into their original flocks, following the voice of their own shepherd.

In our modern times, this illustration still holds true to life. Whose voice is it we heed and follow? Is it Christ, as the Good Shepherd of our lives, or do we heed and follow other voices? God does not call most of us to greatness, but He does call each and all of us to faithfulness. We heed His voice when we get our heads and hearts together, and place our life, our trust, our very being into His good hands. Who needs a shepherd. these days? Why, we do, of course! He came for just such days as are ours. "The Lord is my shepherd," affirmed the psalmist, David. Christ is your Good Shepherd, too. When you heed His voice, you echo with the psalmist, "He restores my soul." You also shout his assurance, "surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the House of the Lord forever."

All Souls will again participate in the Baby Bottle Project to benefit the Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland, a non-profit organization that assists mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid. Each year, the Women's Center sees over 5,000 expectant mothers in their three locations, one of which is located at Our Lady of Knock in Calumet City. They estimate to have saved over 40,000 babies and their mothers from abortion since opening in 1984.

Please take a Baby Bottle home with you from the Narthex Mother's Day weekend, May 13-14, fill it with your spare change, and return Father's Day weekend, June 17-18. If you are making a donation by check, please make it payable to The Women's Center. You may also visit GoTWC.org or call 773-794-1313 to donate.

This is a simple but crucial fundraising effort for The Women's Centers. Please note that the baby bottles cost nearly $1 per bottle and are recycled afterwards, so please be sure to return them at the end of the project. Thank you for helping to defend life, and remember to keep all pro-life undertakings in your prayers.

Faith Formation

"And Peter said to them, 'Repent, and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ..." Acts 2:38

The word "repent" means to turn from sin, to change our actions. Change that is permanent comes from within. It requires prayer, discipline, and perseverance. Change is also hard. We must recognize that we are broken and need help. The good news is we are not alone in our journey. Ask Jesus daily for guidance and patiently listen for His response.

Vocations:

We are celebrating the fourth Sunday of Easter, also called Good Shepherd Sunday. On this Sunday, the church invites us to pray for the increase in priestly vocations and ask the risen Jesus to provide us with shepherds according to His heart; let's take a moment to ask the Supreme Shepherd to give us holy and wise priests. Through the shepherds, Christ gives His Word, distributes His grace in the sacraments, and leads the flock towards the Kingdom of Heaven.

He gives Himself as nourishment in the sacrament of the Eucharist, imparts the Word of God and guides His people carefully.

Jesus has procured for His Church shepherds according to His heart, that is, men who, through the sacrament of Holy Orders, represent Him and act as the "in persona Christi," men who give their lives for their sheep, with pastoral charity, with a humble spirit of service, with mercy, patience, and strength.

As parishioners and Christians, each of us works to make the kingdom of God grow in communion with our pastors Fr. Mark and Fr. Joseph, Pope Francis, Archbishop Cupich and our Bishop Perry, successors of the apostles, and for this, we pray for them.

This is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. The harvest is great, but laborers are few. Pray to God of the harvest to send more laborers into the fields.

Sandra Bustamante, PA/Director of Faith Formation

Formación en la Fe

"Y Pedro les dijo: Arrepentíos, y bautícese cada uno de vosotros en el nombre de Jesucristo..." Hechos 2:38

La palabra "arrepentirse" significa volverse del pecado, cambiar nuestras acciones. El cambio que es permanente viene de adentro. Requiere oración, disciplina y perseverancia. El cambio también es difícil. Tenemos que reconocer que estamos rotos y necesitamos ayuda. Las buenas noticias: no estamos solos en nuestro viaje. Pídele a Jesús diariamente que te guíe y escucha pacientemente Su respuesta.

Vocaciones:

Estamos celebrando el cuarto domingo de Pascua, también llamado Domingo del Buen Pastor. En este domingo, la iglesia nos invita a orar por el aumento de las vocaciones sacerdotales y pedir a Jesús resucitado que nos provea de pastores según su corazón; Tomemos un momento para pedirle al Pastor Supremo que nos dé sacerdotes santos y sabios. A través de los pastores, Cristo da su Palabra, distribuye su gracia en los sacramentos y conduce al rebaño hacia el Reino de los Cielos.

Se da como alimento en el sacramento de la Eucaristía, imparte la Palabra de Dios y guía con diligencia a su pueblo.

Jesús ha procurado para su Iglesia pastores según su corazón, es decir, hombres que, por el sacramento del Orden sacerdotal, lo representen y actúen como "in persona Christi", hombres que dan la vida por sus ovejas, con caridad pastoral, con un espíritu humilde de servicio, con misericordia, paciencia y fortaleza.

Como feligreses y cristianos, cada uno de nosotros trabaja para hacer crecer el reino de Dios en comunión con nuestros pastores. Marcos y el P. José, el Papa Francisco, el Arzobispo Cupich y nuestro Obispo Perry, sucesores de los apóstoles, y por esto oramos por ellos.

Esta es la Jornada Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones. La mies es mucha, pero los obreros son pocos. Oren al Dios de la cosecha para que envíe más trabajadores a los campos.

Sandra Bustamante, Asociado Pastoral, Directora de Formación en la Fe.

The Music of Living
Directed by Philip J. Bauman

American composer and a South Holland Master Chorale favorite, Dan Forrest has written an exuberant setting of a text teeming with joy and optimism of life, The Music of Living. This work is balanced with the gentle, unassuming, and beautifully lyrical setting of the Requiem text by Gabriel Faure. The concert concludes with Frank Ticheli's masterful setting of Sara Teasdale's lyric poem, There Will Be Rest, which looks to the stars for serenity and promise. We encourage you to invite friends, family members, and loved ones to this inspiring event.

TIBETAN SINGING BOWL SOUND MEDITATION WITH MARK BIEHL
Friday, May 5, 7:00 - 8:30 pm
Fee: $35

This is a complete immersion into the world of sound and vibration that will gently guide you into a state of heightened awareness and tranquility by merging the vibrational energies of over twenty beautifully tuned Himalayan singing bowls, gongs, chimes, indigenous flutes and the voice. Let SANCTUARY offer you refuge for a more focused, peaceful and balanced life. Please dress casually and bring a yoga mat, blanket and pillow for your comfort. Zero gravity chairs need to be requested at registration. It is preferable not to eat for an hour prior. This event will be held at the Motherhouse auditorium.

Facilitator: Mark Biehl, CVSC, LSHC is a lifelong musician and composer. Mark is a Certified Vibrational Sound Coach and Licensed Spiritual Health Coach who has received training in Primordial Sound Meditation and traditional shamanic sound practices.

ROOTED IN LOVE: FEEL WITH THE HEART
Monday, May 8, 9:00 am-Noon
Fee: $25

In this session, participants will explore and engage in grounding exercises for calmness, space, and restoration. Exercises include forest bathing (weather permitting), journal prompts, Heartwork (doodle) journaling, and discussion about self-care practices. This morning is for "anyone wanting to strengthen their capacity to ride life's many ups and downs — with more steadiness, ease and a sense of groundedness." (Finding Calm, Sarb Johal]

Facilitator: DebraVinci-Minogue, an Associate Professor at Dominican University, is trained in Mindfulness Meditation (with Jack Kornfield and Tara Brach). She has recently been trained in Heartwork Journaling.

WOMEN'S SACRED CIRCLE via Zoom
Monday, May 8, 7-8:30 p.m. Fee: Donation

You are invited to join a small group of women meeting virtually each month to support one another in their efforts to walk a spiritual path in the midst of the challenges of the times. During this virtual gathering women can ask the important questions, share pieces of their stories, and learn from each other's experience. The group provides welcome, interaction, connection, and a chance to be heard. A unique theme is offered each month to spark conversation.

Facilitator: Janice Keenan, OSF
