GOSPEL MEDITATION - The Most Holy Trinity

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vain-glory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY - Inspiration for the Week

On this Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, we are reminded to encourage one another, to show affection and support. Can we do it? Can we do it in our daily interactions, in our families? Can we even do it on social media?

Sunday, July 16 at St. James

We will celebrate our 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass together at St. James on July 16 and then head right outside for the picnic! We made the decision to hold the festivities here because the facility is wonderfully suited to this type of summer party. There is a lovely grassy expanse and a playground for the children. If it rains, there is ample ground-level indoor space and a convenient kitchen and restrooms. We will supply lunch and water, and you may bring your own other drinks (adult beverages over 21 only). We are seeking baked goods for the dessert table and volunteer assistance in several areas. Have a connection or something to donate? Any other questions? Please call the Parish Office at 708.895.6700.

The High Adventure Crew of Troop 276 would like to thank all of the parishioners and community members who came out and let them wash your cars last weekend! There will be one more car wash next Saturday, June 10, and this will be the last fundraiser they hold for their trip to the Louisiana Swamps this summer. These hard-working young men strive to finance the bulk of their activities themselves, demonstrating the independent spirit fostered in them by their years of Scouting. This year's crew includes parishioners Joshua Breitenreiter, Charlie, Ted, and Lou Gray, Seamus and Ciaran Polanski, and Chris Jacobson. We are proud to know and support them!

We are always interested in your photos of parish happenings and alumni and parishioner achievements for the bulletin, our website, and social media! Email them to jgray@allsoulsparish.com.
