THE BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST

Corpus Christi: Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ: Jn 6:51-58

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ. Our readings are focused on the gifts of the Word of God and the Eucharist. This feast has deep significance to those of us living the stewardship way of life: those who share what the Lord has given us.

Why? As stewards, we recognize that all that we are and all that we have been given are gifts from God. We are called to treasure these gifts and use them for God's glory. Aside from life itself, the most precious gifts God has given us are His Word and His Body and Blood. Our Solemnity this weekend and the readings for this week invite us to a deeper gratitude and better stewardship of these two gifts. The feast is commonly known as Corpus Christi, The Body of Christ. The readings are pointing to the Sacrament of the Eucharist, the meal, the bread of life that strengthens us as we journey here on earth. As we reflect on this Sacrament, we are reminded of not going hungry in our daily lives. We suffer from many kinds of hunger.

Let us turn to the Gospel to see the various kinds of "bread" Jesus offered to people, thus satisfying their many hungers. To the people who followed Him into the desert and were starving, He offered ordinary bread, and so satisfied their physical hunger. To the leper whose body was falling apart, He offered the only bread that mattered to him — the bread of physical healing. To the lonely woman at Jacob's well, He offered the bread of human kindness, and thus satisfied her hunger for acceptance. To sinners He offered the bread of forgiveness, and thus satisfied their hunger for salvation. To the rejects and outcasts, by mixing with them and sharing their bread, He offered the bread of companionship, and so satisfied their hunger for self-worth.

To the widow of Nain who was burying her only son, and to Martha and Mary who had just buried their brother Lazarus, Jesus offered the bread of compassion, and showed them that even in death we are not beyond the reach of God's help. With Zacchaeus, the rich tax collector who had robbed the bread from the tables of the poor, He began by inviting Himself to his table. Then, having awakened within him a hunger for a better life, He got him to share his ill-gotten money with the poor. To the thief who died at His side, Jesus offered the bread of reconciliation with God, thus bringing peace to his troubled soul.

But surprisingly, there were some who refused Jesus' offer of bread. There was the rich young man to whom He offered the bread of discipleship, but who refused it because he was not willing to part with his riches. There were the Scribes and Pharisees to whom He offered not once, but several times, the bread of conversion, but they refused to eat even a crumb of it. There were the people of His beloved city of Jerusalem to whom, with tears in His eyes, He offered the bread of peace, but they refused it with the result that their city was destroyed. There was Pilate, to whom He offered the bread of truth, but he had no appetite for it because it meant putting his position at risk.

Jesus shared himself with others in many ways, and under many different forms, before offering himself to them as food and drink at the Last Supper. Jesus nourishes us in so many ways, and of course especially in the Eucharist. The presence of Christ in the Eucharist becomes a problem only when we have lost our sense of his presence in all that is. Those who have a deep sense of the presence of God in the whole of creation will not have great difficulty in believing that He is present in a very special way in the Eucharist. God alone can satisfy all the longings and hungers of our hearts because He alone can give us the Bread of Eternal Life. This is the bread we receive in the Eucharist. Without it, we would not have the strength to follow Christ.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: "He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers." (Dt 8:3)

Psalm: Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. (Ps 147)

Second Reading: Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf. (1 Cor 10:17)

Gospel: "For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." (Jn 6:55-56)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: At the end of their forty-year journey in the desert, Moses instructs the Israelites not to forget how God taught them to depend on Him alone. How might you remind yourself of this important lesson in life?

Second Reading: Paul teaches the Corinthians that through the body and blood of Christ, the community of believers are "one body." Who in your life needs to hear this unifying message?

Gospel: Jesus teaches the crowds that through his body and blood believers will obtain eternal life and be raised on the last day. This is the core of our Catholic belief about Jesus. How do you think we can best celebrate this gift of eternal life? ©LPi

As we come into the summer months, finances become a little tighter in the parish while our supporters are on vacation and busy with warm-weather pursuits. Thank you for remembering All Souls with your regular contributions - we cannot get by without them! If you would like to arrange your donations for when you are away, here are some ideas:

- ✦ place all your envelopes for the month in the weekly basket at once before you go or upon your return
- ✦ text to give at 847-201-4236
- ✦ set up e-giving at www.givecentral.org/location/100

Please have a safe and enjoyable summer, filled with whatever makes you happiest. Don't forget the sunscreen!

Do you wish to have a Mass said for someone, but find it difficult to come into the office during business hours? Simply call us at 708.895.6700 to schedule your times, dates, and sites, and you may send your donation in through the collection basket or Give Central. The requested donation is $10 per intention.

Sunday, July 16 at St. James

We will celebrate our 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass together at St. James on July 16 and then head right outside for the picnic! We made the decision to hold the festivities here because the facility is wonderfully suited to this type of summer party. There is a lovely grassy expanse and a playground for the children. If it rains, there is ample ground-level indoor space and a convenient kitchen and restrooms. We will supply lunch and water, and you may bring your own other drinks (adult beverages over 21 only). We are seeking baked goods for the dessert table and volunteer assistance in several areas. Have a connection or something to donate? Any other questions? Please call the Parish Office at 708.895.6700.

June 11, 2023

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

With Father's Day next Sunday, I am reminded not only of the importance of the many fathers who tend to their families in our archdiocese, but also of our parish priests who serve as our spiritual fathers. So first, allow me to wish all the fathers in our parishes my heartfelt thanks and congratulations. You truly make a difference in the lives of those who know and love you. As well, Father's Day also gives us an opportunity to thank and support our priests who minister in the Archdiocese of Chicago. These 430 active and 257 retired priests have chosen to dedicate their lives to serving you and your family through pastoral care, celebration of the sacraments, and leadership of our communities of faith.

With this letter I ask you to join me in supporting the health and well-being of our priests by making a generous gift to the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA collection for the benefit of their healthcare and retirement needs. Your sacrifice on their behalf not only contributes to their health and well-being, but it also demonstrates to them your support of their ministry in our parishes and communities.

You might not be aware that this is the only collection for our archdiocesan priests' health and retirement, which totals nearly $13 million annually in health care, nursing, and retirement costs. As well, this collection is separate and distinct from the annual collection for religious order priests, sisters, and brothers.

Join me in making a generous contribution to this weekend's second collection. I also ask that you consider naming the Priests' Health and Retirement/PRMAA as beneficiary of your will, something I personally have done.

As I ask you to join me in praying that God continue to bless our dedicated priests, I assure you of my remembrance of you and your families in my prayers and at the Lord's Table.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

PRAYER

God, thank you for sending Jesus from heaven.

MISSION

Every morning when you eat breakfast, spend time with Jesus. Trust God to give you all that you need.

DRAW

Draw a picture of manna falling from the sky.

GOSPEL

When God's people were in the desert with Moses, they got hungry. So, God gave them sweet manna from heaven every morning. It was all they needed to live. God sent Jesus to us from heaven, too, but he's much better than manna. Through Jesus, we can live forever with God.
