12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

12TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
Witnessing Despite Fear: Facing Our Fears with Faith
Matthew 10: 26-33

Today's readings call us to tackle the challenging issues of fear and trust—two concepts on opposite sides of the same coin. They must be confronted and dealt with by all of us who wish to live the stewardship way of life: freely sharing the gifts that God gives us. In our first reading from Jeremiah, the prophet expresses sentiments we have all felt at some point in our lives when he says, "I hear the whispering of many: 'Terror on every side!'" Perhaps this "whispering" comes from the culture that insists we must think of ourselves, our own interests, our financial comfort first. Only when we are certain that our own needs are met can we think of serving God and sharing with others. Perhaps when we consider stepping out of our comfort zones, the fear-inducing whispers come from within us. "You're too weak, too selfish, too broken to really live as Christ's disciple." Yet, just when Jeremiah is nearly overcome with fear, he remembers the truth, and it is just as true for us today. "The Lord is with me, like a mighty champion."

Pope John Paul II had as his motto: "Be not afraid." Of course, he was quoting our Lord whom we just heard give the same mandate to His apostles in today's Gospel, "Do not be afraid." Since God knows how many hairs are on our head and is aware when even a little sparrow dies, then He's aware of every detail of our own lives. Although He is aware and cares, He does not guarantee us that bad things will not happen to us. Ups and downs are part of our existence and they even happened to God's holy prophets and to Jesus himself. Because God is aware and He cares, He tells us not to fear, for He is in control and will make everything turn out right for those who are faithful to Him. "Be not afraid." Sometimes that's easier said than done. Fear is built into us, and we feel it when we feel threatened. If fear were not a part of our nature, we wouldn't even exist today, because long ago our ancestors would not have had sense to get out of the way of charging wild animals or strike poisonous snakes. Nor would we be moved to get out of the way of cars and trucks coming at us at 50 miles an hour. Fear enables us to survive, to know when to fight, to know when to run. But sometimes it gets out of control and takes over our life, whether that fear comes from a real threat or an imagined one. Faith is a big help to deal with fear, and sharing our fears with a trusted friend can be helpful. But sometimes fear is so controlling that counseling or medication is required.

I think when Jesus tells us not to fear, He's not talking about the spontaneous reaction we feel when we are threatened. He's telling us not to worry and to put our trust in Him that things will come out alright in the end. The words of St. Paul, "We know that all things work for good for those who love God" (Rom 8, 28), have been a constant help to me to stay together during very trying times.

One thing Jesus does tell us to fear is God! "Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna." In Old Testament times Gehenna was a place of human sacrifice to pagan idols. At the time of Jesus, it was a garbage dump, which was constantly burning. Thus, Gehenna became the symbol of evil and hell. Jesus' words confuse some people! Aren't we supposed to love God, but if we fear Him, how can we love Him? Doesn't St. John tell us "Perfect love casts out fear?" All of that is true. For those who have a "reward and punishment" view of life, a little fear might help them stay on the straight and narrow. For those who have moved beyond the "reward and punishment" stage, this fear that Jesus talks about is the fear of being unfaithful to God or having a sense of awe, respect and reverence when we approach God. Those who fear God in this way will approach Him with awe, respect and reverence frequently. In either case, a little healthy fear of God will greatly reduce our fear of other things in life, including death itself. I know from many years of dealing with people that if we are at peace with God and know the Lord is with us, there will be fewer things in life that can upset us or frighten us. Amen.

Loving Outreach to Survivors of Suicide (LOSS)

Catholic Charities Loving Outreach to Survivors of Suicide Loss (LOSS) offers in-person and online support groups for adults who are grieving the loss of a loved one to suicide. Since 1979, LOSS has helped guide individuals and families through this challenging grieving process. Our individual and group sessions provide safe, nonjudgmental environments where survivors can share their feelings and experiences. Participants receive information and hope from veteran facilitators who help new members realize that they are not alone, and that they will not feel this confusion and deep sadness for the rest of their lives. LOSS groups are also supported by licensed mental health professionals who meet survivors wherever they are in the grieving process. For more information contact us via email at loss@catholiccharities.net or call (312) 655-7283.

Today's Readings

First Reading: "Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!" (Jer 20:13)

Psalms: Lord, in your great love, answer me. (Ps 69)

Second Reading: But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many. (Rom 5:15)

Gospel: "What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the rooftops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul." (Mt 10:28)

Mark Your Calendars for the All Souls

Sunday, July 16 at St. James

All are invited to celebrate our 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass together at St. James on July 16 and then head right outside for the picnic! We will supply lunch and water, and you may bring your own other drinks (adult beverages over 21 only). We are seeking baked goods for the dessert table and volunteer assistance in several areas. Have a connection or something to donate? Any other questions? Please call the Parish Office at 708.895.6700.

QUILT RAFFLE

Get your tickets for a chance to win a beautiful quilt at the picnic! Handmade by late, long-time St. Ann parishioner, Mary Schopp, the full-size quilt has been donated by our Sewing Club. Tickets are available for purchase in the Narthex after all Masses, and the winner will be drawn at the picnic. They are $2 each, three for $5, or six for $10. Winner need not be present.

ADORATION UPDATE

The Adoration Ministry at All Souls/St. Ann will expand beginning July 3.

All are invited to spend prayerful time with the Eucharist in the St. Ann Day Chapel between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 6:00 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays.

When exposed, the Eucharist must be attended at all times. Do you have an hour or two per week to spend in attendance of the Eucharist? See the signup sheets in the Narthex, or call the Parish Office any time to let us know your preferred days/times so that we may add you to the Adoration schedule: 708.895.6700

We would like to thank everyone who was involved at the All Souls/St. James Adoration Chapel for their tireless dedication over the years. Sadly, Adoration there will come to a close June 30, and we pray that many will continue their dedication to the Eucharist with us at All Souls/St. Ann or elsewhere.

Have you never experienced Adoration but are wondering about it? Please come to our next Monthly Adoration that takes place the last Wednesday each month: June 30. The Eucharist is exposed in the St. Ann Chapel immediately following 7:30 a.m. morning Mass and Adoration concludes at Noon with Rosary and Benediction.

HOW DO YOU PRAY THE EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

The Eucharistic Adoration is a prayer (it normally lasts an hour, called Holy Hour) that is made before the Blessed Sacrament.

Steps to pray:

1. REALIZE WHO IS PRESENT
Place yourself in the presence of Christ.

2. GIVE THANKS
Be thankful for this moment of prayer and for all the blessings the Lord has given you.

3. ASK
Present Him all your intentions and the intentions of those around you.

4. MEDITATE
In a moment of silence, try to listen to the voice of God.

5. ASK FOR FORGIVENESS
Express your sorrow for the world's sins and your own.

ALL 4th GRADERS - HIGH SCHOOLERS: CAN YOU ANSWER THE CALL?

Becoming an Altar Server is not only an honor but an important part in the offering of the Mass. You will be assisting the priest in the celebration of the Eucharist, which is the cornerstone of your faith. If you are interested in becoming an Altar Server, please discuss it first with your parents or guardians, as you will be making a serious commitment. It is no different than being on the basketball team, or any other hobby or activity that you participate in. You will be able to indicate your preferred Mass time and any dates that you are unavailable. If you are interested, please fill out the attached form and return it to the Parish Office or in the Collection Basket at Church.

We will contact you with the date for Altar Server Training when it is decided. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Cindy Hope, at 708-474-2914.

Our Next Children's Liturgy is Sunday, July 2 at the 10:30 a.m. Mass

All children present are invited to come to the front of church when the priest calls them forward together with the catechists for a blessing. They are then dismissed to the chapel to hear the Sunday readings and reflect on the Gospel in terms they can understand. The children rejoin the congregation in time for the Profession of Faith.

Want to join us? Children's Liturgy is an easy, low commitment volunteer opportunity for anyone middle school-aged and older. Lessons are provided.

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time • Matthew 10:26-33

PUZZLE

Copy the picture square by square.
Then color it in.

GOSPEL

You are God's special child. He knows all about you. He knows what you like to eat. He knows your favorite color. He knows how many teeth you have. He even knows how many hairs are on your head. No one in this world loves you as much as God loves you. Be sure to tell your friends how much God loves them, too.

PRAYER

God, I thank you for loving me so much.

MISSION

After you brush your hair, count the hairs in the brush. God knows how many hairs you lost!

DRAW

Draw a picture of yourself telling a friend about God's love.

SUPPORT THE WORKS OF THE HOLY FATHER THROUGH THE

Peter's Pence Collection

Be a sign of mercy.

When Russia invaded Ukraine in February 2022, a humanitarian crisis began for Ukrainians, whose lives were shattered by the violence of war. Many left their homes in eastern cities in Ukraine for cities in the west, such as Lviv, farther from the most intense fighting. From the beginning of the war, the Holy Father pleaded for an end to the violence and expressed his love and concern for the Ukrainian people who were its victims. In solidarity with the victims of war, the papal almoner, Cardinal Konrad Krajewski, made two visits to Ukraine in March 2022. He first visited the cities of Rivne and Zhovka and other regions directly affected by the early conflict. He returned to Ukraine to celebrate Mass in the cathedral in Lviv and to deliver an ambulance donated by the Holy Father to the Center for Mother and Child Health to assist children displaced by the war.

The Holy Father's charitable outreach to victims of war, migrants and refugees, and the poor affected by illness and natural disasters is supported by contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection. When you participate in the collection, you join Catholics across the globe in supporting the pope's mission of mercy as well as the activities of the Holy See's dicasteries that assist his ministry.

Support for such papal efforts is rooted in the scriptural message to take care of the poor and expresses unity with the Holy Father in two ways: through the ongoing activities of the Holy See and through the charitable works of the Holy Father on behalf of those most in need.

How You Can Help

PRAY

Pray for the Holy Father, for those he reaches out to serve in compassion, and for the ongoing activities of the Holy See, all of which benefit from the Peter's Pence Collection.

SHARE

Share this bulletin insert with anyone who might be interested.

GIVE

Give generously to this collection as a sign of mercy to those who suffer around the globe and in support of the ongoing work of the Holy See. By doing so, you help build up the Church so that it will continue to minister to all for generations to come.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Marriage Preparation Courses

January – December 2023

PreCana is a required course for couples getting married in the Archdiocese of Chicago.

At the completion of the course, couples will receive a certificate of attendance to present to their pastor prior to their wedding day.

- The fee for a PreCana course is $150 per couple for a virtual session ($195 for in-person at a parish).
- Each PreCana course is 6 to 7 hours featuring live instruction, prayer, and discussion with your engaged partner.
- PreCana is currently offered in-person at a parish or virtually over Zoom. You can participate in either a full-day course (select Saturdays) or over the duration of two evenings (select Mon/Weds or Tues/Thurs).
- If you are getting married outside of the Archdiocese of Chicago, please make sure you complete the pre-nuptial file at your home parish here in Chicago for them to send it to the Archdiocese of Chicago Canonical Affairs Office. This Office will then review, approve and send your file to your destination arch/diocese where your marriage will take place.
