Dear Family of Faith:

The sale of the St. John property in Glenwood, IL closed on April 19, 2023, at a final price of $900,000. After fees, closing costs and bills, All Souls Catholic Parish received $780,897.64. We used $117,445.65 of these funds to pay off the remainder of our Archdiocese bill for Fiscal Year 2023, a feat which we have not accomplished in many, many years. This annual expense costs us in the neighborhood of $24,000 per month, so you can see that it is often difficult to achieve.

The parish promises to be good stewards of the remaining proceeds, which will go directly into the Building Fund for savings. We have not had an emergency reserve for some time now, so it is nice to breathe a little easier with that security. Our ultimate goal is to operate the church with the moneys we receive from weekly, holiday, and special collections, fundraisers, and other donations made through the generosity of our parishioners and friends, while keeping the emergency reserve for just that—emergencies.

The details of the sale are as follows:

Property Sales Price:	$900,000.00
Less closing costs, outstanding bills, and fees:
Closing Costs	$ 72,602.18
Outstanding Bills	$ 32,500.18
Real Estate Service Fees	$ 14,000.00
Net Proceeds:	$780,897.64

I want to thank you wholeheartedly for all you do for this great community of All Souls Parish. As a family we always have needs to make our home a safe and suitable place in which to live. Therefore, I want to introduce to you the current and urgent needs that we are facing.

We need to replace the ailing furnace in our church building. The two huge units located outside the north end of the church have served the role of heating and cooling the entire structure since it was built over 30 years ago, and they are now aged and failing. Another essential item is the boiler in the St. Ann school building, which is of course home to our religious education program, where our community children gather for their faith formation. The school building is also slated to be a source of revenue, but we cannot rent it without installing the boiler piece that has worn out after over 70 years of serving this building.

We will soon itemize the cost of each of those items mentioned here above. I count on your generosity, the same generosity you have displayed over the years, so that we will not have to tap into the emergency reserve. We hope to do different types of fundraising, and I appeal here for a generous increase from each one of us in our weekly donations. If every parishioner decided to increase at least 10% in their weekly contributions, we could make our goal in a timely manner.

I pray that as God's stewards we put all our energy, all our time, our talents, and our treasure into trusting this great God and using all that we are and all that He has given us to bring Him glory.

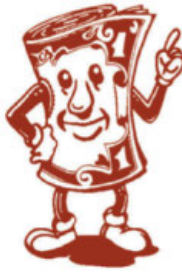

May the Good Lord continue to bless the work of your hands.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: "I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." (2 Kgs 4:9-10)

Psalm: Forever I will sing the goodness of the Lord. (Ps 89)

Second Reading: Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. (Rom 6:3-4)

Gospel: "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPI

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The Shunammite woman is rewarded with the promise of a newborn son for her generous hospitality to the prophet Elisha. To whom could you show a good measure of charity this week?

Second Reading: In Paul's view, since Jesus defeated death in his resurrection, he challenged the believers in Rome to think of themselves as "being dead to sin and living for God." How often do you think of ways to put your faith into action?

Gospel: Jesus teaches his disciples about the challenges and rewards of following him. What do you personally find most challenging or rewarding in following Jesus?
