TRANSFIGURATION

THE FEAST OF THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD: 2 PT 1: 16-19; MT 17: 1-9

Last Sunday I said that for the next four weeks we would be hearing from the sixth chapter of St. John on the Eucharist. I hadn't looked ahead to see that this Sunday fell on August 6, which is the feast of the Transfiguration. Although we hear about the Transfiguration every year on the second Sunday of Lent, the actual feast of the Transfiguration is on August 6. It is an important enough feast that it replaces the normal Sunday liturgy.

Tradition identifies Mt. Tabor as the mountain of the Transfiguration. It's quite a climb to get to the top. There is a chapel on top of the mountain commemorating the occasion of the Transfiguration. I said Mass there 16 years ago when I went with a study group to the Holy Land. They had cars and buses to take us up the mountain. I'm not surprised that Peter, James, and John fell asleep when they went there with Jesus, as St. Luke tells us in his Gospel. They didn't have cars and buses and they would have been very tired when they got to the top. But when they woke up, their efforts to make it up to the top of that mountain with Jesus were well rewarded. "It is good that we are here," Peter said. "Let us make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah." It sounds to me as if they were ready to stay there for several weeks, it was such an awesome experience. As wonderful as it was, Jesus' work wasn't finished, and neither was theirs. They had to come back down to earth.

Most of us, I'm sure, have had moments when we've felt God's presence and closeness and special love, or when we knew God was helping us with some problem. But I'm sure there are few, if any of us, who have experienced anything like the Transfiguration. We may be a mystic and have ecstatic experiences in prayer or we may be a saint who receives visions of Jesus or Mary. Other than that, we've probably not experienced anything like the Transfiguration and may find it difficult to relate to it. But we can learn from it.

We can learn that God has great glory reserved for us until, as the second reading tells us, "day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts." We can learn from what God spoke on the holy mountain about Jesus: "This is my beloved Son, listen to Him." This is not something new, of course, but it doesn't hurt to be reminded once again that we must listen to Him.

We can learn that we cannot expect mountain top experiences every day when we pray, when we receive the sacraments, when we keep the Commandments. There are those moments when we get a lot of consolation and good feelings from our faith and from prayers. Then there are those moments when prayers dry out, when our faith is exactly what that word means, believing only on the word of another and not feeling anything except that we're in a desert. The apostles were with Jesus three years and there was only one experience like the Transfiguration, and only three of them experienced it.

Our first reading from the Book of Daniel contains almost the same description as that found in the Gospel. The prophet Daniel describes what will occur as follows: "His clothing was bright as snow, and the hair on his head as white as wool." As if that prophecy was not enough, Daniel takes it to the next step by going on to say, "One like a Son of man coming on the clouds of heaven."

The term Son of Man is one that Jesus was most likely to use in indication of Himself. Seeing it in a prophecy, and especially one which is so clearly the Transfiguration, more closely associates Jesus with the Transfiguration which is to come and described so perfectly in the New Testament.

In our second reading from St. Peter's Second Letter, the Apostle Peter also alludes to the Transfiguration. Peter writes, "...we had been eyewitnesses of His majesty... when that unique declaration came to Him from majestic glory, 'This is my son, my beloved, with whom I am well pleased.' We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven while we were with Him (Jesus) on the holy mountain."

Those words from God are reported quite accurately in our Gospel reading from St. Matthew, but this is Peter repeating them. You can almost sense Peter remembering the experience clearly. At the time Peter mistakenly placed Jesus as an equal to Moses and Elijah at the Transfiguration, and this was the way God made it quite plain to Peter that this was not the case. This may have been a rebuke to Peter, but now it is a valuable memory to him.

The Transfiguration was not a different miracle; it was part of an ongoing miracle. Perhaps the real miracle was that Jesus kept away from displaying His glory most of the time. When the three apostles present became aware of the full divinity of Jesus, it is reported that, "They fell prostrate and were very much afraid." Is that how we react when we become aware of the presence of God? Are we a bit fearful?

Knowing God, appreciating God, and embracing God should give us confidence. God's grace is amazing, and that needs to be our reality. Remember that Jesus is on His way to crucifixion and temporary death. We are on that same path, but the Transfiguration is a reminder to us of the hope we have in the saving grace of the Lord.

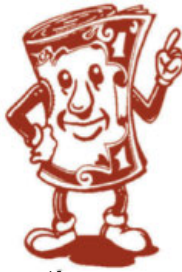

In our own way, each of us has been to the mountaintop at some time in our lives. "We have seen His glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth" (John 1:14). But we are sinners. We love Him, but in the time of testing, we have each denied Him. We are grateful to be recipients of His grace, and we commit ourselves again this day to seek in all we do to be close to Him from this day forward. Amen

THE RESULTS ARE IN!

Several weeks ago, All Souls participated in a parish-wide survey, the Disciple Maker Index. More than 173 of our parishioners completed the survey – a 24% response rate. Those numbers compare favorably with the other participating parishes as well.

More detailed analysis of the complete survey results will be released from time-to-time as we continue to unpack the data and discern its implications.

Thank you to all who took the time to participate in the Disciple Maker Index survey. It is an important piece of the puzzle to help us in sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ and forming Missionary Disciples.

Transfiguration of the Lord • Matthew 17:1-19

PRAYER

DRAW

Draw a picture of Jesus glowing on top of the mountain.

MISSION

Read today's Gospel with your family. What would have surprised you most about seeing Jesus like that on top of the mountain?

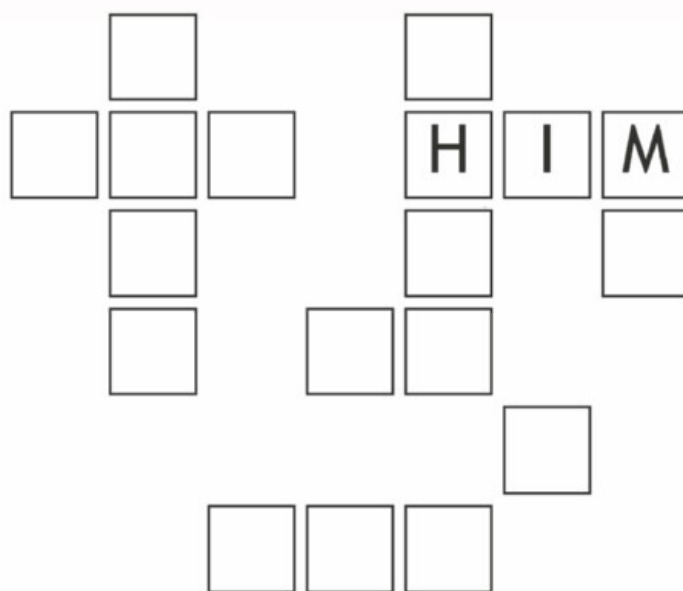

GOSPEL

Previews give us a quick peek at a movie, in hopes that we will want to see more. In today's Gospel, we celebrate Jesus' Transfiguration. That's when God gave Peter, James and John a preview of the risen Jesus, the Jesus they would see again one day. Jesus glowed brightly. Moses and Elijah came to talk with Jesus. Then a great cloud covered everyone, and God said Jesus was his Son. Jesus was the Savior that God's people had been waiting for.

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

This is my Son, and I love him.
