22ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Readings

First Reading: Whenever I speak, I must cry out, violence and outrage is my message; the word of the LORD has brought me derision and reproach all the day. (Jer 20:8)

Psalm: My soul is thirsting for you, O Lord my God. (Ps 63)

Second Reading: I urge you, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. (Rom 12:1)

Gospel: “Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (Mt 16:24-25)

Gospel Meditation

September 3, 2023: 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Isn't it easy to relate to Peter? One moment Jesus announces Peter's deep communion with God the Father. The very next, when he rejects the logic of Jesus' suffering and death, Jesus calls Peter Satan. We Christians shouldn't be too shocked when we experience both spiritual highs and lows, when we perceive breathtaking contradictions in our hearts.

Like the great apostle, you and I are recipients of unfathomable graces. God dwells in us, calls his beloved children, and takes care of our every need. And we also continually fail to embrace our sufferings with trust in Jesus. We know the truth of the creed, but we easily scorn the weight of the cross.

The good news is that, like Peter, we are never abandoned by the Lord even at our worst moments. Peter will eventually learn the beauty of the cross when he is willingly crucified. But it took time for him to get there. And it takes time for us, too. This week let's not be too shocked at these divisions in our hearts but accept them and patiently seek to be more obedient to Jesus' cross-shaped plan for us.

— Father John Muir

Dear Lord,
Please bless and protect the men and women whose work contributes to the labor force and supports families and those in need. Give them strength when they face challenges, grace in times of stress, and renewal as they rest. Amen.

Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

Choosing the Cross

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I've been called a lot of things in my life, but I've never been called "Satan," at least not to my face.

It seems to me the worst name you could call a person, and today we hear it straight from the lips of Jesus. It's just one of the many small reminders strewn throughout Scripture that Jesus preaches meekness, but he is not mild — not when mildness serves no purpose, anyway.

And here, when Peter is trying to deter Jesus from making the right choice, mildness serves no purpose at all.

Can we blame Peter? I certainly can't. I'm sure I would have said the same thing to my own dear friend. He is, in today's Gospel, wholly unwilling to embrace the cross — he's afraid of it, even — but aren't we all, in the end, afraid of our cross? I am. It's no sin, it's only human. Fear is natural. Self-preservation is a reflex.

What Christ speaks of today is a choice, one we are all faced with, again and again, just as Peter is. We will not always respond perfectly; Peter does not respond well today. He does not respond well on Holy Thursday.

But on his last day, on the day of the ultimate choice? On that day, he chooses the cross.

We marvel at first responders who put themselves in harm's way for the sake of others, because to do so is not human, it is divine. I have to believe that if even a firefighter's loved one threw themselves in his way, he would still charge toward the flames, crying, "Get behind me."

Christ runs into the burning building for us, shaking off not only his own fear (and he had it, I promise you — he was human, too) but the fear of everyone who loved him.

"Offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God..." — Romans 12:1 ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The prophet Jeremiah speaks of the loneliness and ridicule he endures for answering his prophetic call. Who do you turn to in times of personal sadness and distress?

Second Reading: Paul challenges us not to be conformed to the present world "but be transformed by the renewal of your mind." What can you do this week to grow in your thinking as someone who believes in Jesus?

Gospel: Peter is resistant to Jesus's revelation that as the Messiah, he is destined to suffer and die before rising. How do you react to news difficult to hear?

ALL SOULS PARISH 2023 FURNACE FUND

We are proud to warm the more than 800 souls in our parish community by keeping the flame of faith burning. But we need to keep our bodies warm (and cool!) as well.

The HVAC system in the church was installed when it was built in 1997. The furnace and a/c unit servicing the west side of the church has failed and is obsolete. We must replace the west unit entirely in order to keep our congregation comfy year-round.

Replacement Cost:
$40,000

Installation:
$10,000

The former school building will soon become a source of rental revenue and houses our 140+ Religious Education students. We have been advised to maintain the current boiler with the following necessary updates.

Burner Unit for Boiler: $21,000

Replacement Vacuum Unit: $9,000

Installation: $20,000

TOTAL OF REPAIRS & REPLACEMENTS:
$100,000

Help us fuel our future by making a donation at www.givecentral.org/location/100 or by mailing a check to All Souls Parish, 3010 Ridge Road, Lansing, IL 60438

Thank you!

As Sisters of the Cenacle, we draw our inspiration from Mary, the Mother of Jesus, surrendering herself to the guidance of the Holy Spirit in the first Cenacle (Acts 1:14). Since our founding a principle part of our mission has been one of providing space (literal and now virtual) for people to gather, to pray, and we hope, to be inspired by the Spirit just like Mary at the first Cenacle. We believe that the assorted retreats, programs, and other events we offer will encourage your faith formation, spiritual sustenance, or dialogue with the Divine. ARE YOU THE ONE?
COME WORK WITH US!

All Souls is seeking a Religious Education Coordinator to manage our comprehensive religious education/faith formation program. If you are looking for a job that is also a faith-filled opportunity to serve others, please consider applying to join our community and become a member of a team passionate about making disciples for Jesus.

Position Overview: Coordinate the family-centered Children's Religious Education Program for grades 1-8, including recruiting and training Catechists, developing curriculum, Sacramental preparation, and parent/student meetings. Coordinate other sacramental preparation, including Baptismal Preparation and RCIA. Oversee other Ministries such as Children's Liturgy of the Word, Vacation Bible School, SPRED, etc. Establish an outreach to teens to engage them in the mission of the Catholic Church.

Requirements: The RE Coordinator must be a practicing Catholic and a member of a parish, and must support the Archdiocese initiative of Building a New Reality (BNR). You should also possess excellent interpersonal, written, and oral communication skills; have the ability to plan, organize and meet deadlines; and demonstrate strong collaboration skills and the ability to lead by example. For full job description, please visit our website: www.allsoulsatholicparish.org

Send your Resume to: office@allsoulsatholicparish.org and call for an in-person interview at 708-895-6700

PLEASE KEEP OUR COLLEGE STUDENTS IN YOUR PRAYERS

If your student is already on the list, please fill out a new form to update their school address for the new 2023/24 year.

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish? It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not just on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

RE parents, please join the group "All Souls Parish Religious Education" on Facebook to connect with Catechists and other families and for news and helpful resources.

Our Next Children's Liturgy is Sunday, October 1 at 10:30 a.m. Mass

All children present are invited to come to the front of church when the priest calls them forward together with the catechists for a blessing. They are then dismissed to the chapel to hear the Sunday readings and reflect on the Gospel in terms they can understand. The children rejoin the congregation in time for the Profession of Faith.

Want to join us? Children's Liturgy is an easy, low commitment volunteer opportunity for anyone middle school-aged and older. Lessons are provided. FMI, contact the Parish Office at 708-895-6700

GOSPEL

If it were up to Peter, Jesus would never have died on the cross. Peter did not want to see his dear friend get hurt. It could have been tempting for Jesus to listen to Peter. But Jesus did not come to be happy or comfortable. Jesus came to die on the cross and rise again. He came to take your sins away. Jesus gave up his own life so that your life could be saved. He did it for you.

DO we have a specific cause? Yes! Helping someone in need, offering hope and support. Veterans, single mothers, those with medical conditions, those struggling in general. We not only help those who come to us, we seek out those in need. With over 1600 volunteer members, efforts are put forth 24 hours a day. Our President/CEO is a volunteer. With unbending dedication, it is not unheard of for him to spend 50 hours a week working side by side with volunteers, board members, and store employees defining the very core of who we are.

So, when you choose us for your donations, you are changing the lives of your neighbors in need. You are providing food, clothing, shelter, job training, and hope of better tomorrows. You are helping a veteran in need, a mother who has hungry children, a victim of domestic violence, someone ill who needs assistance to get proper medical treatment, someone who is lonely and dealing with mental health issues, and families who have experienced bumps in the road. YOU are the difference that is building better tomorrows for those in need in our community.
