Today's Readings

First Reading: If I tell the wicked, “O wicked one, you shall surely die,” and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked from his way, the wicked shall die for his guilt, but I will hold you responsible for his death. (Ez 33:8)

Psalm: If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)

Second Reading: Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law. (Rom 13:10)

Gospel: “If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother.” (Mt 18:15)

Gospel Meditation

September 10, 2023: 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do?

Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, “If your brother sins against you...” Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

— Father John Muir

Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

Love and Truth

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

I think even the most devout, the most pious Catholic reading this could summon to mind, if asked, one or even two examples of Catholic teaching for which they have desperately looked for a loophole.

Don't worry, I won't make you share with the group. But bring it to your mind now: the doctrine you once resented, or perhaps still do. The commandment you don't fully understand, the one you bristle against. The rule you find the hardest to follow. The belief you hate explaining to your friends.

If it disappeared from scripture or dropped out of the catechism, would your life really be easier? Would you be happier?

I am thinking of mine. For a long time, I searched high and low for a way around this particular teaching. I read books and Scripture and tradition, I prayed and reflected and tried to argue with myself. For a time, I gave up complying with it entirely. I threw it to the wind, with a shoulder shrug and a self-satisfied assurance to myself that God, being a loving father, does not want his child to be unhappy.

But reader: I was miserable. I was so, so miserable, and I stayed that way until I finally accepted that God is, indeed, a loving father, and desires nothing less than the unhappiness of his children. And so, to ward it off, he has given us the truth, and asked us to share it amongst ourselves like a cherished heirloom, a priceless inheritance.

To share truth, you must show love. To show love, you must share truth. One demands the other. Because this is what Christ does for us, and this is the mission of the Church in this world. Loosening and binding. Bearing witness. Giving testimony. Speaking truth, and in speaking truth, showing love.

“If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.” — Psalm 95

©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The Lord teaches Ezekiel that he is personally responsible to be faithful to the prophetic words given to him. How could you show others that you take your faith seriously?

Second Reading: Paul taught that love (loving one's neighbor) is the fulfillment of the law God gave to Israel. What do you think is most challenging to this seemingly simple command to love one another?

Gospel: Jesus taught his disciples to make every effort possible to be reconciled with someone who has wronged you. Is reconciliation a high priority for you? ©LPi

August Baptisms

Please welcome and keep in your prayers the newest members of our All Souls Catholic Parish family!

Bianca Nicole LaBella
Child of Joseph III & Kelcie LaBella

Eliana Rose Ramos
Child of Omar & Jasmine Ramos

The parish family of All Souls is happy to welcome new members into the Body of Christ through the Sacrament of Baptism! Christenings take place at St. Ann Church on the 2nd and 4th Sundays of each month (unless otherwise indicated), immediately following the 10:30 a.m. Mass. Parents must attend a preparation session prior to their child's baptism. These are held monthly on the Thursday before the first baptisms of the month. There are no baptisms during weekends of Lent. FMI, call the parish office at 708.895.6700 or visit our website: www.allsoulscatholicparish.org/sacraments/baptism/

- ✦ Next weekend, September 16-17, the second collection will be for Seminarian Education. We are truly blessed that these selfless, young seminarians are willing to dedicate their lives to Jesus, the Church, and each of us. We ask for your encouragement, prayers, and financial support to help cover the cost of their preparation, which includes tuition and fees, room and board, and health insurance. We will distribute remittance envelopes for your gift next weekend. You may also send your donation directly to All Souls, noting that it is for "Seminarian Education," or you may make a gift online at archchicago.org/seminarianfund. Thank you for your generosity.
- ✦ Want to join the All Souls crew? See Page 8 for an exciting job opportunity!

Our Next Family Mass Will Be October 1

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish?
 It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! Our 4th grade through high school students are also invited to become altar servers and have the chance to serve more frequently once they are trained (call the office FMI). We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not just on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

 Tickets Compliments of Schroeder-Lauer Funeral Home

All Souls Parish/St. Ann Church ♥ 3010 Ridge Road, Lansing, IL

As you have seen in the bulletin the past few weeks, we have a very large fundraising task ahead of us to replace our failing heating and cooling systems. The good news is that if we sell out the entire 1,000 Furnace Fund Raffle tickets you learned about at this weekend's masses, we will raise over 3/4 of that money without any one person having to dig deep! To make the raffle a success though, we will need all hands on deck. Registered parishioners and RE families will be receiving two tickets in the mail, and we ask that you buy, sell, or buy and sell these. If you can sell more, we will have five-packs available for check-out (no prepayment required), and there will be a special drawing just for those who sell more than their requirement. If you do not receive your tickets by mail, please call the Parish Office so that we may update your address, and we will be happy to send them out. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to chat with your Furnace Fund Raffle committee members: Ted Cap, Jennifer Gray, Dan Podgorski, and Janice Summerrise. Thank you, thank you for your support and participation! Together we will Warm All Souls!

Knights of Columbus Tootsie Roll Drive September 16 & 17 After Masses

The Knights of Columbus of Lansing Council #3540 will host its annual Campaign for the Intellectually Disabled Tootsie Roll Drive after all weekend Masses at All Souls/St. Ann. Proceeds from this most worthwhile program will help us assist these special children of God. Thank you in advance for your support and generosity. Boxes of 50 Tootsie Rolls will also be available for only $7. Buy your Halloween candy early!

ALL SOULS PARISH 2023 FURNACE FUND

We are proud to warm the more than 800 souls in our parish community by keeping the flame of faith burning. But we need to keep our bodies warm (and cool!) as well.

The HVAC system in the church was installed when it was built in 1997. The furnace and a/c unit servicing the west side of the church has failed and is obsolete. We must replace the west unit entirely in order to keep our congregation comfy year-round.

Replacement Cost:
$40,000

Installation:
$10,000

The former school building will soon become a source of rental revenue and houses our 140+ Religious Education students. We have been advised to maintain the current boiler with the following necessary updates.

Burner Unit for Boiler: $21,000

Replacement Vacuum
Unit: $9,000

Installation: $20,000

TOTAL OF REPAIRS & REPLACEMENTS:
$100,000

Help us fuel our future by making a donation at www.givecentral.org/location/100 or by mailing a check to All Souls Parish, 3010 Ridge Road, Lansing, IL 60438

Thank you!
