Thirty First Sunday in Ordinary Time: The Attack on the Scribes and Pharisees

An employee at a local company suffered from an immense superiority complex. She usually had low-level jobs and one day found herself moved up to a little higher position with a cubicle of her own. That really inflated her ego. While she was still getting settled, she saw a man approaching her work area. Immediately she picked up the phone and pretended to be on an important phone call. "Yes, J.D.," she said, loud enough to be heard by anyone 50 feet away, (J.D. were the initials of the president of the company). "Thank you for your kind wishes and I will take care of what you asked me to do right away." Then she hung up the phone, turned in her swivel chair with an air of importance and said to the man standing at her door, "May I help you?" "I'm sorry to disturb you," he said. "I'm here to hook up your phone."

Jesus tells us, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

We just heard strong condemnations from the prophet called Malachi of the priests of his day and Jesus' condemnation of the scribes and Pharisees of His time. The condemnations were well justified, for these groups of religious leaders thought they were so great, but they were full of pride and lacking in true holiness. In the history of all religions, great damage has occurred to people's faith and to the Church when its leaders failed to live virtuous lives. Yet we are all human and, along with the entire gathering of Christ's followers, we confess that we are sinners as we ask God's mercy, each time we begin the Mass.

But today's Scripture readings apply not only to religious leaders. Every person has a circle of people around them whom they influence for better or for worse. Certainly, with people at work, in our neighborhoods, in our families, our Church families, we can be a good influence or a bad influence. We used to call it setting a good example or being a bad example. Even though we do not hear these terms very often anymore, they are still realities. Even children in a family or in school can be a good influence or bad influence on each other.

The kinds of things we say, the encouragement we give to do right or wrong, can make us true leaders for good or for no good. But do we go around like an Old Testament prophet pointing out people's faults when we see them doing wrong? It's a delicate thing. Some people can do it effectively, some people just alienate the people they are trying to help. Recently, I heard a good answer to the question St. Francis gave when a person told Francis that he often saw people doing wrong. He asked Francis, "Should I tap people on the shoulder and tell them that they should be acting differently?" Francis said, "Do you live a good life, love your family, worship God, help others? Then you are preaching to others how a person should live." In many ways, being a Christian and being a good steward have everything to do with humility. Jesus is the absolute epitome of humility, and today's readings once again emphasize that fact. However, we also must recognize that it is a way of living to which He calls us as well.

A man, returning from a business trip, was met at the airport by his wife. They walked from the gate together and were standing waiting for the baggage to be unloaded. An extremely attractive flight attendant walked by. Suddenly, the man came to life. Beaming, he said to the stewardess, "I hope we can fly together again, Miss Jones." On the way home his wife grew suspicious, "How come you knew the name of that stewardess?" she asked. The man replied smoothly, "You see, my dear, her name was posted right up front in the plane, under the names of the pilot and co-pilot." To which the wife replied, "Okay, now give me the names of the pilot and co-pilot." The man's hypocrisy was uncovered. Jesus spent a great deal of time uncovering the hypocrisy of the religious leaders. He told His followers, "Do whatever they teach you and follow it; but do not do as they do, for they do not practice as they teach."

Furnace Fund: As I close this reflection on the readings this weekend, I wanted to thank all of you for what you have done so far in contributing for the Furnace Fund. You, our Family of Faith, show such love for All Souls Parish, a combined effort of St. John, St. Ann and St. James. I wanted to thank in a special way our Furnace Fund Raffle Committee: Ted Cap, Jennifer Gray, Dan Podgorski, and Janice Summerrise; I thank them wholeheartedly for all they are doing to make sure that this fundraising is a success, updating you where we are in this process and reaching out to you on my behalf. May the Good Lord continue to bless the work of your hands.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: You have turned aside from the way, and have caused many to falter by your instruction. (Mal 2:8)

Psalm: In you, Lord, I have found my peace. (Ps 131)

Second Reading: With such affection for you, we were determined to share with you not only the gospel of God, but our very selves as well, so dearly beloved had you become to us. (1Thes 2:8)

Gospel: "Therefore, do and observe all things whatsoever they tell you, but do not follow their example. For they preach but they do not practice." (Mt 23:3)

Christmas Giving Tree

Christmas is the season of giving, and what better way to give to those less fortunate than to be a part of our Giving Tree Ministry event! Giving Trees will be on display in the St. Ann Narthex after the November 18 & 19 Masses. Gift recipients will be available on a first come, first served basis. Our Giving Tree leaders ask that all parishioners who take a tag from one of the trees please give their name, phone number, and card number to them on the provided labels. Purchase your $20-25 gift (no gift cards please), wrap it, secure the provided tag to it, and return it to the Chapel on December 9 or 10 no later than at 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday. This is very important, as our volunteers will be sorting them for pickup right after Mass. Please note: We can accept your gift AT CHURCH the weekend of December 9 and 10 only, and not before. If you cannot get to the Chapel that weekend, please bring your gift to the Parish Office the week of December 4-8. If you would like to help sort presents and ready them for delivery, please come to the Chapel after the 10:30 Mass on December 10. Thank you for your participation in this wonderful holiday tradition!

Do you still have a land line, or do you exclusively use your cell phone now? Have you graduated or retired and subsequently have a new email address? Or are you new to All Souls Parish? # FAMILY MASS

Sunday, November 5 @10:30 a.m.
Our Next Family Mass Will Be December 3

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish?
 It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! Our 4th grade through high school students are also invited to become altar servers and have the chance to serve more frequently once they are trained (call the office FMI). We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not just on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

4th GRADERS - HIGH SCHOOLERS: CAN YOU ANSWER THE CALL?

Becoming an Altar Server is not only an honor but an important part in the offering of the Mass. You will be assisting the priest in the celebration of the Eucharist, which is the cornerstone of your faith. If you are interested in becoming an Altar Server, please discuss it first with your parents or guardians, as you will be making a serious commitment. It is no different than being on the soccer team, or in any other hobby or activity that you participate. You will be able to indicate your preferred Mass time and any dates that you are unavailable. If you are interested, please fill out the attached form and return it to the Parish Office or in the Collection Basket at Church.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING WILL TAKE PLACE IN CHURCH ON SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19 AT 11:30 a.m.
 If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Cindy Hope, at 708-474-2914.
