Today's Readings

First Reading: She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. (Prv 31:12-13)

Psalm: Blessed are those who fear the Lord. (Ps 128)

Second Reading: But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief.

For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. (1 Thes 5:4-5)

Gospel: ““Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.”” (Mt 25:21)

Gospel Meditation

November 19, 2023:

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

When I was a kid, I hated playing Monopoly because my siblings and friends always seemed to win. But worse was how it happened. Scared to risk my fake money on buying properties, I'd hold on to it. My opponents hungrily bought up the various real estate squares on the board. Then, inevitably, my poor, low-equity self would land on their spots, pay them rent, and my money would drain to zero. It seemed so unfair. The rich get richer, and the poor get poorer. I had to learn that monopoly money is meant to be spent. I was scared to lose some of it. So, I lost all of it.

How do we see what we possess? Jesus' parable about the talents is not really about economics but about the investability of everything he entrusts to us. How marvelous that everyone in the fable who places talents in the open market doubles their investment. The only one who doesn't is the man who fearfully buries his one talent. Jesus' success strategy for us seems to be, whatever we have, get it out of our possession. Risk it as quickly and as fully as we can.

You and I have precious gifts. We have valuable things to invest — time, talents, treasure. The Lord invites us to be brave and even somewhat reckless, to give as much away as possible. If we give it away in the direction of love and truth, it will grow. If we hold on to it in fear, the little we have will be taken away. Let me challenge you this week: find something in your life you're holding on to, and risk it by giving it away. It won't double if you hold on to it.

— Father John Muir

Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

What Remains

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

When my grandfather died, my parents, siblings, and I were left with the question: what's to become of the house?

Anyone who has inherited property knows that it's not simply a matter of assuming ownership of a plot of land upon which sits four walls and a roof. Those four walls and a roof usually contain memories and objects — an enormous volume of both, in the case of my grandfather. When they're left to you, you have to sift through them, the memories and the objects, and with each one you have to think: Is it worth it? Do I keep it? Will I need it?

And slowly, painfully, you disassemble the physical existence of the person who lived here. You accept, with a pang, that most of it must be given away or discarded. You cry when you bag up the clothes to take to Goodwill. You can't even bear to look when they break the piano into a hundred pieces and throw it in a dumpster, realizing that no one wants or has a use for something that was once so precious.

But when you come upon a rosary that was used so many times it has begun to fall apart, you don't even think twice before keeping it, and not because you need the rosary. You need what it means. You need what it reminds you of.

When all is said and done, each of us will be called before our master to settle accounts, just as my grandfather was.

“Where are the gifts I gave you? What remains of the fortune to which I entrusted you?” he will ask us.

“What have you done with the peace? What have you done with the love? What have you done with the mercy?”

“You yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night.”

1 Thessalonians 5:2

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Proverbs describes the ideal wife who runs her household with wisdom and grace. How would you describe your household growing up?

Second Reading: Paul reminds the Thessalonians to stay alert and sober for the day when the Lord Jesus will return. Why do you think the date of this event is hidden from us?

Gospel: Jesus teaches about the importance of using our God-given gifts faithfully and prudently in the parable of the talents. What gifts have you used well in your life? ©LPi

After Black Friday and Cyber Monday comes #GIVINGTUESDAY, the global day of giving that will take place this year on Tuesday, November 28. Although our focus of late has been the Furnace Fund, we do have other maintenance needs that are ongoing, and these days they are made even more difficult by escalating materials costs affecting everyone all over the world.

Our All Souls Giving Tuesday goal this year will be to raise as much money as we can in 24 hours for parish maintenance costs.

We are calling our campaign $28 on the 28th: if enough people could make just a $28 donation, or whatever you are moved to give, we could prevent the maintenance necessities from becoming maintenance calamities! Please support All Souls and join us for this 24-hour global day of generosity.

Ways to Make Your $28 on the 28th Gift:

- Donate by cash or check and submit in an envelope marked #GIVINGTUESDAY
- Scan the QR Code

CCHD 2023 COLLECTION

For over 50 years, the Catholic Campaign for Human Development has carried out the mission of Jesus Christ to bring good news to the poor, bring liberty to captives, bring new sight to the blind and set the downtrodden free.

Please support the second collection in your parish on November 18 – 19. Funds raised will provide support to local organizations across the Chicagoland area.

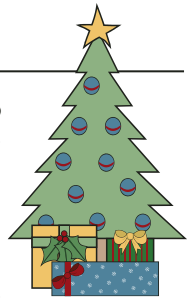

For more information on CCHD's mission and partner organizations or to donate, please visit CCHDchicago.org.

- ✦ The second collection this weekend is for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. See page 5 for more information. Thank you for your generosity.
- ✦ Altar Server training is THIS WEEKEND! Fill out the form on page 9 for your student, and we will see them after 10:30 Mass on Sunday, November 19. We are so proud of your students and can't wait to see some new young faces assisting on the altar!
- ✦ On Thursday, November 23, there will be no early morning Mass, Rosary, Divine Mercy Chaplet, or Adoration. Thanksgiving Mass will take place at 9:00 a.m.
- ✦ We will be collecting non-perishable food donations this year at our Thanksgiving Day Mass. Instead of placing them in the shopping cart in the Narthex, please bring your contributions into church and we will place them at the base of the altar when the ushers direct us.
- ✦ Beginning the weekend after Thanksgiving and all through Advent, Oplatki Christmas wafers will be available for purchase in the Narthex after all Masses at both churches, or you can ask a sacristan before Mass. A $2 donation is suggested.
- ✦ Bears Squares are available weekly in the Narthex after all Masses, only $5 each for a chance to win $62.50 each quarter. Proceeds go to the Furnace Fund.
- ✦ We are very excited to be welcoming back our old friend Fr. Bart for our Advent Mission on December 12 & 13. We will start with dinner at 6:00 and the Mission will follow. All are welcome; bring your friends!

Christmas Giving Tree

Giving Tree weekend is here! Be sure to visit the display in the Narthex after Masses to pick up your tag. Gift recipients will be available on a first come, first served basis. Our Giving Tree leaders ask that all parishioners who take a tag from one of the trees please give their name, phone number, and card number to them on the provided labels. Purchase your $20-25 gift (no gift cards please), wrap it, secure the provided tag to it, and return it to the Chapel on December 9 or 10 no later than at 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday. This is very important, as our volunteers will be sorting them for pickup right after Mass. Please note: We can accept your gift AT CHURCH the weekend of December 9 and 10 only, and not before. If you cannot get to the Chapel that weekend, please bring your gift to the Parish Office the week of December 4-8. Thank you for your participation in this wonderful holiday tradition!

Our hearts become glad when we are grateful to God. We affirm the good in our lives and recognize that the source of goodness is from God. Thanksgiving has the ability to change the direction of the day. It is good to thank God for what he has given us. Out of gratitude, we invest in His work or give to someone in need. As we present our spiritual gifts to the altar, so we do likewise with human gifts of food to those who are in need. We invite you to come forward with your offering of food to others at Thanksgiving Mass and place them at the base of the altar when the ushers direct you to do so.
