THE HOLY FAMILY

THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY, AND JOSEPH: LK 2:22-40

Today, as we gather to celebrate the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, we are reminded of the profound love, faith, and obedience that characterized their lives. In the Gospel of Luke, we encounter a beautiful account of their presentation of Jesus in the temple, where they encounter Simeon and Anna, two faithful and devout individuals.

In this passage, we witness the fulfillment of the ancient Jewish law, where Jesus, as the firstborn son, is presented to God in the temple. Mary and Joseph, in their unwavering commitment to their faith, obediently follow this tradition. As they enter the temple, they encounter Simeon, a righteous and devout man who had been eagerly awaiting the arrival of the Messiah. Filled with the Holy Spirit, Simeon recognizes Jesus as the fulfillment of God's promise and utters the beautiful words of the Nunc Dimittis, "Now, Master, You may let Your servant go in peace, according to Your word, for my eyes have seen Your salvation."

The encounter with Simeon is a powerful reminder of the faith and hope that sustained the Holy Family. Mary and Joseph, guided by their trust in God, embraced their roles as parents to the Son of God, despite the challenges and uncertainties that lay ahead. They were obedient to God's plan, even when it seemed difficult or unclear.

Additionally, we encounter Anna, a prophetess who spent her days in the temple, worshiping and fasting. Anna, upon seeing Jesus, gives thanks to God and speaks of Him to all who were awaiting the redemption of Jerusalem. Her devotion and dedication to God's presence in the temple serve as an example for us to seek God in our own lives, to be vigilant and attentive to His presence.

As we reflect on the Holy Family, we are called to emulate their virtues. We are called to love one another unconditionally, just as Jesus, Mary, and Joseph loved each other. We are called to be faithful and obedient to God's plan for our lives, even when it may be challenging or unclear. We are called to seek God's presence in our daily lives, to be attentive to His voice and to share the good news of His love and salvation with others.

Our Gospel today says a great deal about trust and surrender to our Lord — three trademark words of a steward.

First and foremost, the Holy Family teaches us about the importance of love. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph deeply loved and cared for one another. Their love was selfless and unconditional, serving as a foundation for their family life. They remind us that love is at the core of any strong and healthy family.

Secondly, the Holy Family teaches us about faith. Mary and Joseph both demonstrated unwavering trust in God's plan for their lives. They faced many challenges and uncertainties, but they never lost faith. Their trust in God's guidance and providence serves as an inspiration for us to trust in God's plan for our own lives.

Lastly, the Holy Family teaches us about the power of unity and cooperation. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph worked together as a team, supporting and helping one another. They faced the challenges of life together and relied on each other's strengths. Their unity reminds us of the importance of working together as a family, supporting one another through thick and thin.

Let us pray for the grace to follow the example of the Holy Family, that we may grow in love, faith, and obedience. May we be strengthened in our family relationships, and may our homes be places of love, peace, and joy. May we, like Simeon and Anna, encounter Jesus in our lives and proclaim His presence to the world.

May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph intercede for us and guide us in our journey of faith. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: "Your own issue shall be your heir." The Lord took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." (Gn 3:4-5)

Psalm: The Lord remembers his covenant for ever. (Ps 105)

Second Reading: By faith he received power to generate, even though he was past the normal age—and Sarah herself was sterile. (Heb 11:11)

Gospel: The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favor of God was upon him. (Lk 2:40)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Abraham and Sarah relied on their faith in the Lord as they struggled with family matters. When have you needed to rely on faith when it comes to your family?

Second Reading: Hebrews teaches us that at every challenge in his life, Abraham consistently trusted and obeyed God. When have you had to surrender complete trust to God?

Gospel: In their purification ritual in the Jerusalem Temple, Mary and Joseph learn news from Simeon and Anna about their newborn baby, Jesus. In your family, how do you deal with startling or unsettling news?

Remember, you will NEVER receive an email from Fr. Mark or anyone on staff asking for you to send gift cards or bank information or to rescue us from any dire situations. If you receive an email "from" Fr. Mark saying, "I need your help, please email me back," or something like that, rest assured, it is NOT from him. Hover over the name of the sender so that you can see the email address it came from. It will likely be a long string of gobbledygook, or it will be something generic like pastor1234@gmail.com. It's very easy for people to create these fake email addresses and impersonate someone you trust. Please don't fall for it! If you ever have a question, please call the office at 708-895-6700 so we can clear it up.

FAMILY MASS

Our Next Family Mass is January 7 @10:30 a.m.

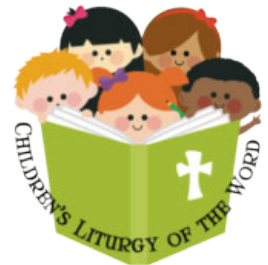

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish? It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! Our 4th grade through high school students are also invited to become altar servers and have the chance to serve more frequently once they are trained (call the office FMI).

We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not only on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

RE parents, please join the group "All Souls Parish Religious Education" on Facebook to connect with Catechists and other families and for news and helpful resources.

Our Next Children's Liturgy is Sunday, January 7 at the 10:30 a.m. Mass

4th GRADERS - HIGH SCHOOLERS: CAN YOU ANSWER THE CALL?

Becoming an Altar Server is an honor and an important part in the offering of the Mass. Altar Servers assist the priest in the celebration of the Eucharist, which is the cornerstone of our faith. If you are interested in becoming an Altar Server, please discuss it first with your parents or guardians, as you will be making a commitment, much like being on a team. You will be able to indicate your preferred Mass time and any dates that you are unavailable. If you are interested, please fill out the form below and return it to the Parish Office or in the collection basket at Church. We will notify you when the next training is scheduled after the holidays.

If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Cindy Hope at 708-474-2914 or Mr. Dan Mauch at 708-895-6700.

All children present are invited to come to the front of church when the priest calls them forward together with the catechists for a blessing. They are then dismissed to the chapel to hear the Sunday readings and reflect on the Gospel in terms they can understand. The children rejoin the congregation in time for the Profession of Faith.

Want to join us? Children's Liturgy is an easy, low commitment volunteer opportunity for anyone middle school-aged and older. Lessons are provided. FMI, contact the office at 708-895-6700.
