Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time: CURING OF THE LEPER

Our readings today prepare us for the penitential season of Lent that we are about to enter. They call us to consider what our Lenten journey might be like — an opportunity to be healed and cleansed on our journey as disciples of Christ. Our first reading and the Gospel are tied closely together. In the book of Leviticus, the Lord tells Moses and Aaron in regard to a person with leprosy that, "As long as the sore is on him, he shall declare himself unclean... He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp." It was said that if a man had visible skin diseases, he would have to show himself to the priest who would declare him clean or unclean. If declared unclean, he would reside outside the community, separating himself from the rest.

This weekend is Commitment Weekend for the Annual Catholic Appeal. The theme of our Appeal this year is "Together at the Table." Considering the Gospel in which Jesus touches the leper, we are all invited to imitate Jesus by taking this mission together and including all around us. We will reach out to all in need with no boundaries. Everyone is included. As we reach out to all, we let them know that they all belong.

In today's first reading, we encounter a passage that speaks about the regulations for those afflicted with leprosy. In the Gospel of Mark, we witness the healing of a leper by Jesus. And in the First Letter to the Corinthians, we are reminded of the importance of imitating Christ in all that we do. Leprosy, in biblical times, was not just a physical ailment but also carried a heavy social stigma. Those who were afflicted with the disease were considered unclean and often cast out from society. In the reading from Leviticus, we see the strict regulations that were put in place to prevent the spread of leprosy. However, it is important to note that these regulations were not meant to discriminate against those who were suffering, but rather to protect the entire community.

In the Gospel of Mark, we witness the encounter between Jesus and a leper. This leper, filled with faith and hope, approaches Jesus and says, "If you wish, you can make me clean." In this simple statement, we see the essence of true faith - a complete surrender to the will of God. Jesus, moved with compassion, stretches out his hand and touches the leper, saying, "I do will it.

Be made clean." Instantly, the leper is healed, and his life is forever changed. This powerful encounter between Jesus and the leper teaches us several important lessons. Firstly, it reminds us that no matter how broken or unclean we may feel, Jesus is always ready to reach out to us with His healing touch. Just as He healed the leper, He desires to heal our wounds, both physical and spiritual. All we need to do is approach Him with faith and humility, trusting in His infinite love and mercy.

Secondly, this passage challenges us to examine our own attitudes towards those who are marginalized or suffering. Just as the leper was cast out from society, there are many in our world today who are treated as outcasts - the poor, the sick, the lonely, and the forgotten. As followers of Christ, we are called to imitate His example of compassion and inclusivity. We are called to reach out to those in need, to embrace them with love, and to work towards building a society that values the dignity of every human person.

Lastly, the reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the importance of imitating Christ in all that we do. St. Paul exhorts us to "do everything for the glory of God" and to imitate him as he imitates Christ. This means that our actions, our words, and our thoughts should always reflect the love and mercy of our Savior. Just as Jesus reached out to the leper with compassion, we too are called to reach out to others with love and understanding.

As the leper, we too should go forth from being healed with a commitment to cleanse ourselves from the lasting effects of sin. Lent is a time to offer acts of reparation through Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving so that we might be purified in all areas of our life and walk with the Gracious Healer, who sacrificed His life for our sake. Let us commit to spending extra time with our Lord in prayer — He will purify the heart that has been wounded. Let us fast from something that competes for our attention or holds us back from our relationship with God. As we offer that sacrifice to the Lord, we will be filled with freedom and peace and will be strengthened in the face of temptation. And let us give alms to God in thanksgiving for His gifts that He has poured out on us. It will remind us that everything we have is a gift from God — everything good comes from Him, and we want to share every aspect of our lives with Him. Let us approach this holy season of Lent as an opportunity to be healed and cleansed.

As we prepare for Ash Wednesday this week, reflect on the sores and wounds that we can bring to the Lord during this season. He is ready to stretch out His hand to heal us in the Sacrament of Reconciliation. And let us consider what we can do to offer acts of reparation so that we might be purified and one day partake in the resurrection of Christ. May the Good Lord bless you and keep you safe during this Lenten season. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

2024 Annual Catholic Appeal

All are invited to spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal materials you should have received in the bulletin or in the mail. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection: It is a pledged commitment to make a gift over time. Your pledge can be made payable in installments.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to answer the call of "Together at the table."

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back. This year, we also encourage our parishioners to make their Annual Catholic Appeal gifts online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

LENT IS COMING! Join our faith community in a transformative Lenten journey through CRS Rice Bowl to meet people in Uganda, El Salvador, and Indonesia who are working hard to overcome the challenges of hunger and the impact of climate change. Pick up your family's CRS Rice Bowl from the Narthex this weekend. During the 40 days of Lent, we will reflect on our connectedness as one family in Christ and work together to ensure our sisters and brothers worldwide can thrive. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

CRS Rice Bowl is an annual Lenten program created for parishes, schools, and families to engage in global solidarity, raising funds for CRS' international work, but more importantly, building bonds with, learning about, and praying for people all over the world. CRS Rice Bowl is so much more than a simple tool for almsgiving — it is a way to connect with the worldwide Church.

Today's Readings

First Reading: "As long as the sore is on him he shall declare himself unclean, since he is in fact unclean. He shall dwell apart, making his abode outside the camp." (Lv 13:8)

Psalm: I turn to you, Lord, in time of trouble, and you fill me with the joy of salvation. (Ps 32)

Second Reading: Whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God. (1Cor 10:31)

Gospel: Moved with pity, he stretched out his hand, touched him, and said to him, "I do will it. Be made clean." The leprosy left him immediately, and he was made clean. (Mk 1:41-42)

GOSPEL

It is not fun to be sick. You miss your friends at school. You can't go outside to play. On top of being bored and lonely, you don't feel well at all. The man with leprosy in today's Gospel was sick a long, long time. He was really bored, lonely, and feeling awful. There was no medicine for leprosy. Jesus was the only one who could help him.
