EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

EASTER SUNDAY: MOMENTS OF DEATH AND RESURRECTION (Jn 20:1-9 & Mk 16:1-7)

My dear brothers and sisters, happy Easter to all of you! He is risen as He promised, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

On this glorious Easter Sunday, we celebrate the most profound and transformative event in human history - the resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. This event is the greatest event in our Catholic faith. It is through the resurrection that Christ defeated sin and death and opened for us the gates to eternal life. All of God's promises are fulfilled through this glorious event. We have been preparing for 40 long days, through prayer and penance, so that we might be better prepared to receive Christ this day, and to better prepare our hearts to one day rise with Christ in eternal life. Today, we do not fast, but rather, celebrate and rejoice because of our great and merciful God!

The meaning and joy of Easter is not just a "one-day" affair but is an essential element of our Catholic faith. We are called to live out the joy of Easter all year long. Our readings today reveal how we can do this here and now in our day-to-day lives.

The Gospel of Mark, from which we read during the Easter Vigil Mass, recounts the moment when the women approached the tomb, wondering who will roll back the stone for them. Little did they know that the stone had already been rolled away, revealing an empty tomb and the promise of new life.

The image of the stone being rolled away serves as a powerful symbol of the obstacles and challenges we face in our own lives. Just as the women were initially concerned

Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

— Jn 20:8-9

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCD about the stone blocking their way, we too may encounter barriers that seem insurmountable. But the resurrection of Jesus reminds us that God's power is greater than any obstacle, and His love conquers even death itself.

The empty tomb is a testament to the victory of light over darkness, life over death, and hope over despair. It is a reminder that no matter how grave our circumstances may seem, God is always at work, bringing forth new life and possibilities beyond our imagination.

As we celebrate Easter, let us be filled with joy and gratitude for the gift of salvation that Jesus has won for us through His resurrection. Let us embrace the promise of new beginnings and the hope that comes from knowing that Christ has conquered sin and death once and for all.

Just as the women were greeted by the angel who proclaimed, "He has been raised; he is not here," may we too be messengers of this good news, sharing the joy of the resurrection with all those we encounter. Let us live our lives as witnesses to the power of God's love and the transformative grace of Easter.

May the light of Christ shine brightly in our hearts and in the world, illuminating the path of faith, hope, and love. May we always remember that the stone has been rolled away, and nothing is impossible with God. Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: In his speech, Peter places much emphasis on his personal witness to the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. To whom this week could you witness your faith in the resurrection of Jesus?

Second Reading: Paul taught the believers in Colossae to anticipate the return of the resurrected Jesus. How does your family celebrate Easter Sunday?

Gospel: Mary Magdala, Peter, and the Beloved Disciple were the first to experience the joy and mystery of the empty tomb. Do you recall when you first started believing in the resurrection of Jesus? ©LPi

Today's Readings

First Reading: This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. (Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)

Second Reading: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. (Col 3:1)

Or: Clear out the old yeast, so that you may become a fresh batch of dough, inasmuch as you are unleavened. (1 Cor 5:7)

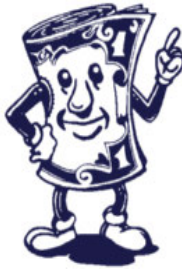

Gospel: For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

Easter 2024

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

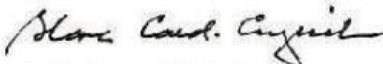

The resurrection of Jesus stands at the center of our faith. We believe, as Saint Paul says, that Jesus “died for our sins and rose for our justification.” He entered the very darkest corners of human existence, took our pain, suffering, and death upon himself, and then drew us into the fullness of risen life.

As we celebrate the Lord’s resurrection this Easter 2024, we are clearly aware of those dark corners of human existence that Jesus took upon himself. With troubled hearts, we watch war and violence unfold in the Holy Land, in Ukraine, in parts of Africa, and in our own city of Chicago. We know the crippling effects of climate change and the natural disasters that have affected so many people throughout the world. We struggle with the social and political polarization that threatens our life together.

We step back from all of this, and we can surely affirm that we need the transforming and life-giving power of the Resurrection. We also stand together as a church, a synodal church, that journeys together and reclaim our faith and trust in the power of the Risen Lord who makes all things work for the good for those who love him. We stand together in our often broken and wounded world to witness hope to all humanity, to proclaim that God’s life and not death will have the last word.

May this feast of Easter be a graced moment to rediscover and reclaim our great faith and hope in Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, who goes before us and leads us home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Archbishop of Chicago

GOSPEL

It was very early in the morning on Sunday. The tomb stone was rolled away. Jesus was gone. All that was left inside were the strips of linen cloth. When John and Peter saw it, they were amazed. They did not understand all the promises the prophets wrote about Jesus yet. However, they knew he was alive. He had risen from the dead!
