SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER: DIVINE MERCY
What is essential is invisible: Community Life
(John 20:19-31)

On this Second Sunday of Easter, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday today since God's mercy was shared with us through the resurrection of Jesus. The access to Divine Mercy has been with us since that time. Many centuries later in 1931, Jesus revealed specific instructions to a nun named Sr. Faustina to help further spread the message of His Divine Mercy. To put it simply, today, we are celebrating Jesus' merciful love for us and how we can partake in it.

No matter where we are on our journey as a disciple of Christ, we are all in need of God's merciful love. There are countless times throughout our day when we miss the mark. For instance, we might fail to respond kindly to our spouse or kids, fall into gossip in our workday, or even forget to think positively of others. These shortcomings call us to humble ourselves and receive the unwavering mercy of God.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles, we are presented with a community of believers who lived in harmony and unity, sharing everything they had with one another. This passage reminds us of the importance of living in communion with one another, supporting and caring for one another in times of need. It is a powerful example of how we are called to embody the mercy of God in our own lives by being generous and compassionate towards others.

In the First Letter of John, we are reminded of the victory of faith over the world. Through our faith in Jesus Christ, we can overcome challenges and temptations and live in the light of God's love and mercy. This passage encourages us to deepen our faith and trust in God, knowing that through Him, we can find true peace and fulfillment.

In the Gospel of John, we encounter the story of Thomas, who doubted the resurrection of Jesus until he saw and touched the wounds of the risen Lord. Jesus, in His infinite mercy, appeared to Thomas and invited him to believe. Through this encounter, we are reminded that God's mercy is always available to us, even in our moments of doubt and disbelief. Like Thomas, we are called to open our hearts to the mercy of God and to trust in His presence in our lives.

Jesus is Mercy itself. He was born into time to save us from sin. And to ensure His Mercy was always available to us, He gave us the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In our Gospel, Jesus encounters the apostles after the resurrection and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Jesus gave us the gift of this sacrament because He wants to help us reach eternal life. He knows we cannot do it without His merciful love, and a resolve to do better and to follow Him more faithfully. It starts with an awareness of our sins and a humble heart.

As we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, let us remember that God's mercy knows no bounds. It is offered to all who seek it, no matter their past mistakes or doubts. Let us strive to live out this mercy in our own lives, showing compassion and forgiveness to those around us. May we be inspired to be agents of God's mercy in the world by the examples of the early Christian community, the victory of faith in Christ, and the encounter of Thomas with the risen Lord. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. (Acts 4:32)

Psalm: Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118)

Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading: For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. (1 Jn 5:3-4)

Gospel: On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading:

We hear how the early Christians lived in unity and holiness, bearing witness to Jesus, and living in community as friends. Which of these traits do you see at work in your faith community?

Second Reading:

John teaches his community that our faith in Jesus helps us "conquer the world." What struggles are you facing that you need to confront and defeat?

Gospel:

The risen Jesus meets Thomas in the midst of his doubt and encourages him to believe. Who could you encourage this week to have faith in the resurrection of Jesus?

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish? It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! Our 4th grade through high school students are also invited to become altar servers and have the chance to serve more frequently once they are trained (call the office FMI).

We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not only on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

Faithful of many local denominations gathered at St. Ann on Good Friday to begin the annual Lansing Community Way of the Cross. The weather was perfect and clear as members of All Souls carried the heavy cross down Ridge Road, stopping 14 times to observe the Stations of the Cross, read by Lansing clergy.

The clergy and cross bearers at the end of the walk: Fr. Mark, Pastor William Lyons of First Christian Church of Lansing, Howard Morrison, Armando Lopez, Oliver Rodriguez, Ted Gray, Nicholas DiGrispino, Pastor G. Morris K. Jarkloh of First United Methodist Church, Gabriel Terrazas, Deacon Phil Wroblewski of Jesus Shepherd of Souls, and Fr. Joseph

Another of our favorite Easter Traditions at All Souls is the Basket Blessing, which takes place on Holy Saturday. Those wishing a blessing bring the food that they will prepare for their Easter feasts, the candy and treats for the kids, etc. This year was Fr. Joseph's first time performing the blessing, which was livestreamed on Facebook for those at home. See it at: www.facebook.com/AllSoulsSSuburbs

GOSPEL

In today's Gospel, Thomas had a hard time believing his friends. Jesus was alive! They saw Jesus! Well, Thomas could not believe it. He needed proof. Thomas wanted to see Jesus for himself. Thomas wanted to touch Jesus' scars on his hands and his side. Once Thomas did that, then he would believe. You may have doubting friends like Thomas. Be patient with them. Do not get angry with them. Love them instead, and gently tell the truth about Jesus. Ask Jesus to open their hearts, so they can believe in him, too.
