OUR VISION

All Souls Catholic Parish aspires to be an inviting faith community where members and newcomers alike are engaged, inspired, and spiritually nourished among friends that become family.

OUR MISSION

As a welcoming and united parish, the All Souls Family of Faith is committed to loving God, loving our neighbors, and inviting others to know and serve Jesus Christ and recognize Him in one another.

Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

Fifth Sunday of Easter: The Vine and the Branches (John 15:1-8)

Our readings today teach us what it means to bear fruit as disciples of Christ. We hear in each of them that good effects will be produced in our lives from the Lord. In our first reading, (Acts 9:26-31); we hear about Saul and the other apostles who were preaching the Good News of Jesus Christ and defending the faith. These disciples knew that they were doing the will of God by the good effects of their work, as it states, "The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace," and again, "It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers." We must take note that the work they were doing was "with the consolation of the Holy Spirit." It was not their work alone, but the work of God. They spread the Good News in His name and with the aid of the Holy Spirit.

If we take this reading and apply it to our lives today, we must ask ourselves, "How is God bearing fruit in my life?" and "Have I invited the Holy Spirit to work in my life?" The reality is that the more we try to produce good effects in our lives, the more we will become disappointed if all we are relying on is our own efforts. It is only by inviting the Holy Spirit into our everyday moments that we will see goodness poured out.

Jesus clearly tells us how to do this in our Gospel, as He says, "I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." We can remain in Christ by staying faithful to His commandments and frequently receiving the sacraments. And our day-to-day moments should reflect those commitments.

Jesus has tried to tell us how are connected to Him and how we should remain in Him in many ways. I would like to note five statements where Jesus uses metaphors that tell us how important it is that we remain united with Him. Notice each of these begins with the words: "I am." Last Sunday, we heard him tell us "I am the good shepherd." "I am the light of the world." "I am the bread of life." "I am the resurrection and the life." And the fifth one we heard today: "I am the true vine." If we had time, we could reflect upon how vital each of these items is: shepherds for sheep, light and food for us, and the vine for one of its branches. Since vines and branches are the theme of today's gospel, let us stay with that image for just another few minutes.

Quite simply, a vine is an organic structure that is nurtured by the rain and the sun; it is fed by the sap that flows through the stem and the branches; it grows and produces fruit. Jesus tells us He is the true vine, drawing life from the Father and communicating that life to all those who remain united with Him. In other words, there is a mysterious, living connection between each of us and Christ, and a mysterious and living connection uniting us with one another through our union with Christ.

St. Paul used a similar metaphor when he wrote that we are the body of Christ. He tells us Christ is the head of the body and we are the limbs. We are feet, hands, arms, legs, etc. through whom Christ lives in the world today. We are united with Christ and with each other through the Spirit. Pope Pius XII wrote an encyclical called The Mystical Body of Christ describing this union. This is not a connection we can examine under a microscope or test for in any other way, other than the test Jesus gave us when He said, "By their fruits you will know them." The way we live our lives shows whether we live in Christ or not.

Jesus assures us, "If you remain in Me and My words remain in you, ask for whatever you want, and it will be done for you." This is not a promise of material prosperity but of spiritual abundance. If we remain connected to Jesus, if we allow His words to dwell in us and guide our actions, then our lives will bear much fruit, and our deepest, truest desires will be fulfilled.

So, let us take to heart Jesus' words in today's Gospel. Let us strive to remain in Him, as branches on the vine, allowing ourselves to be pruned and shaped by God's loving hand. And let us trust in Jesus' promise that if we do this, we will bear much fruit, fruit that will last.

May God bless us all on this Fifth Sunday of Easter, and may we continue to grow in our love and understanding of Him. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him. (Acts 9:27)

Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people. (Ps 22)

Second Reading: And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. (1 Jn 3:23)

Gospel: "I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing." (Jn 15:5)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: The disciples were unwilling to trust that Saul (Paul) was a true believer until Barnabas offered support for Saul. How easily do you trust people you don't know well?

Second Reading: John speaks of the importance of knowing in your heart that you believe in Jesus and truly love others. How does anyone know what is in their heart?

Gospel: Using the metaphor of a vine and branches, Jesus speaks of the importance of staying connected to him and the Father. When do you feel close to Jesus? ©LPi

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

5th Sunday of Easter • John 15:1-8

DRAW

Draw a picture of a tall vine with one branch for every person in your family. Write Jesus' name on the vine, and write the names of your family members on the branches.

PRAYER

God, help me to stay connected to Jesus.

MISSION

Read Galatians 5:22-23 with your family. Write down the nine different kinds of fruit that will grow from your faith, when you stay connected to Jesus.

GOSPEL

Put a brand new light bulb in a lamp. Turn the lamp on. It shines brightly. Now, unplug the lamp. The lamp goes dark. It might be a nice lamp. It might have a new light bulb. Yet, without being plugged in to electricity, the lamp cannot shine. In today's Gospel, Jesus is the vine and you are a branch. As long as you are attached to Jesus, your faith can grow fruit like love, kindness and gentleness. If you break away from Jesus, your faith will die, and you will not grow any fruit. Stay plugged in to Jesus, so you can shine. Stay connected to Jesus, so your faith can grow fruit.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE in Chicago

Save the Dates June 26 – 30, 2024

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year, grassroots initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist Catholics in coming to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the meaning of the Eucharist in the life of the Church. The aim is to proclaim that the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life, to assist Catholics to encounter the Risen Lord in the Eucharist, and to deepen their discipleship in sharing His work of redeeming the world, won on the cross.

The Revival will culminate in a pilgrimage across the country to Indianapolis for the Eucharistic Congress in July 2024. The Archdiocese of Chicago, on the Marian Route of the pilgrimage, will host pilgrims and has organized special events and Eucharistic celebrations in archdiocesan parishes and locations from June 26 to 30, 2024.

To learn more, see the full schedule and register for these events, visit EucharisticRevivalChicago.org.
