The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity:
DT 4:32-34, 39-40; ROM 8:14-17; MT 28:16-20

Today, we celebrate an essential doctrine of our Catholic faith — the Most Holy Trinity, which depicts God as three Divine Persons, unified in One Divine nature. The Trinity is one of the most complex aspects of our faith. It is a topic we could never exhaust nor fully understand until we see God face to face. Although it is incomprehensible, a mystery, it is still deeply personal. Through God's countless revelations to man, we see a glimpse of our awe-inspiring Creator. Through His revelations He has invited us into life with Him.

If anything, the mystery of the Trinity communicates that God is a family—a family so closely united that although they are three entities, they are one God. Oneness is not only an important characteristic of God, but God wants us to share that oneness with Him and each other (it's what He prayed for with such passion at the Last Supper), and yet we have over 400 different groups who call themselves followers of Christ who can't get along with one another.

The mystery of the Trinity is just a peek into who God is, a peek that should inspire us to function more like a family—not a divided family but a united one. This peek into the mystery of God shows us another aspect of this characteristic of unity: God is not sitting alone; God is not needy for a few friends to talk with or to enjoy; the three persons are in such perfect oneness with each other that they are overflowing with love.

In today's Gospel, we hear how Jesus commanded His disciples to go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. This is known as the Great Commission. It should be our theme of evangelization in many ways. This passage from Matthew reveals to us the unity and the equality of the three divine persons in the Holy Trinity. The Father, who creates us out of love, the Son, who redeems us through his sacrifice on the cross, and the Holy Spirit, who sanctifies and empowers us to live as children of God and gives us the courage to witness Him beyond our comfort zones. As we reflect on this profound mystery, let us be reminded of the great love that God has for each one of us: the Father's love that knew us before we were born, the Son's love that willingly laid down his life for our salvation, and the Holy Spirit's love that guides and strengthens us in our journey of faith.

Let us also remember the call that Jesus gave His disciples to go and make disciples of all nations. We too are called to share the love and the truth of the Holy Trinity with all who we encounter. Let us not be afraid to proclaim the Good News of salvation, for we have been given the great commission to bring others into the family of God.

May we be inspired by the unity and the love of the Holy Trinity to live lives of faith, hope, and charity. May we be witnesses of God's mercy and forgiveness in a world that is often divided and in need of healing. And may we always be guided by the grace of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: "This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the LORD is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other." (Dt 4:39)

Psalm: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading: For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" (Rom 8:15)

Gospel: "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." (Mt 28:19)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD. The English translation of Psalm Responses from Lectionary for Mass © 1969, 1981, 1997, International Commission on English in the Liturgy Corporation. All rights reserved. ©LPi

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Moses taught the Israelites the best response we can give to God's fidelity and love is to keep His statutes and commandments. How do you respond to God's generosity in your life?

Second Reading: Paul taught the Romans that as believers we are led by the Spirit of God. Where do you sense God's Spirit leading your family?

Gospel: Jesus's final command to his followers is to make disciples of all nations and baptize them in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. How can we encourage others to follow Jesus?

Let's Pull Together! We're All in the Same Boat

As we come into the summer months, finances become a little tighter in the parish while our supporters are on vacation and busy with warm-weather pursuits. Thank you for remembering All Souls with your regular contributions - we cannot get by without them! If you would like to arrange your donations for when you are away, here are some ideas:

- ✦ place all your envelopes for the month in the weekly basket at once before you go or upon your return
- ✦ text to give at 847-201-4236
- ✦ set up e-giving at www.givecentral.org/location/100

Please have a safe and enjoyable summer, full of whatever makes you happiest. Don't forget the sunscreen!

BABY BOTTLE PROJECT

May 11-12 Through June 14-15

All Souls is participating in the Baby Bottle Project to benefit the Women's Centers of Greater Chicagoland, a non-profit organization that assists mothers and families experiencing crisis pregnancies by offering emotional, financial, material, and spiritual support through counseling, clothing and monetary provisions, prayer, and other aid. Bottles are still available! Please take one home with you, fill it with your spare change, and return it Father's Day weekend, June 14-15. If you are making a donation by check, please make it payable to The Women's Center. You may also visit GoTWC.org or call 773-794-1313 to donate.

Thank you for helping those in crisis and keeping pro-life undertakings in your prayers.

Look for "All Souls Catholic Parish" on Facebook, and "like" us to receive updates and breaking news. You can help increase our visibility and outreach by liking and sharing our posts, too!

- ◆ Next Sunday, June 2 is the Feast of the Holy Body and Blood of Christ, also known as Corpus Christi. We will have a Corpus Christi procession after the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass.
- ◆ The Archdiocese has a limited number of discounted tickets remaining for the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis July 17-21. Tickets are $200 compared to $375 for full passes through the national registration. Tickets will be distributed in the order of requests received. Please note participants will need to organize their own travel and lodging. If you would like to secure a discounted ticket, please contact NEC2024@archchicago.org ASAP. Visit www.eucharisticrevival.org more information about the Congress.

Ministry and organization heads, please mark your calendars! We will hold a Commissions Meeting on Wednesday, June 5 at 6:30 p.m. in the Narthex. If your leader is unavailable, please ask someone else from the ministry or organization to attend in your place. It is very important that ALL parish ministries and organizations are represented at this gathering. We can't wait to see everyone!

P.S. — If you have not yet submitted your calendar request form for FY 2024-2025, please turn that in ASAP. If you did not receive the information, or someone else has assumed leadership, please call the office at 708-895-6700 so that we may update the contact information for your ministry or organization.

It's time to start spring cleaning! If you could set aside any clothing items you would like to purge, the St. Vincent de Paul trailer will be here to collect them in the parking lot on Friday, June 7 from 3:00-5:00 p.m. and Saturday, June 8 from 9:00 a.m.-Noon. They can accept gently used clothing, coats, shoes, boots, linens, and small household appliances in good working order. No toys, electronics, cribs, mattresses, or large appliances. Thank you!

Please do not bring any donations before the dates above. We cannot accept them in Church or at the Parish Office, only at the collection trailer in the parking lot. Thank you!

You will NEVER receive an email from Fr. Mark or anyone on staff asking for you to send gift cards or bank information or to rescue us from any dire situations. If you receive an email "from" Fr. Mark saying, "I need your help, please email me back," or something like that, rest assured, it is NOT from him. Hover over the name of the sender so that you can see the email address it came from. It will likely be something random or generic like pastor1234@gmail.com. It's very easy for people to create these fake email addresses and impersonate someone you trust. Please don't fall for it! If you ever have a question, please call the office at 708-895-6700 so we can clear it up.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

As the disciples ate with friends, traveled, worked, shopped, and made new friends, they were to have one goal in mind—help more people follow Jesus. Baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Teach them to love God and love each other. Teach them to have mercy and forgive each other. Teach them to be humble. Teach them to pray. Teach them to share. And teach them to tell the people they met how to follow Jesus, too.

The Most Holy Trinity • Matthew 28:16-20

MISSION

When we read the Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the Father. What have you learned so far about the Holy Spirit? Using the concordance found at the back of your Bible, look up "Holy Spirit." As a family, write down the verses, find them in your Bible, and read them out loud. Talk about each verse. If you have any questions, write them down and ask your pastor or teacher for help.

In the Archdiocese of Chicago, we celebrated the ordinations of new deacons on May 11 and priests on May 18. Let us offer prayers of thanksgiving and support.

Gracious and loving God, we thank You for the gift of our deacons. Through them, we experience Your presence in word and in action. Help our deacons to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for Your people. Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of Your Kingdom. Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry and help them to become instruments of Your divine grace. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

Men Ordained as Priests

*Timothy Berryhill
Martin Nyberg
Andrew Panzer, SJC
Juan Vargas*

Lord Jesus, You have chosen priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim Your word and act in Your name. For so great a gift to Your Church, we give You praise and thanksgiving.

We ask You to fill them with the fire of Your love, that their ministry may reveal Your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that Your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of Your dying and rising.

Through the gifts of the Holy Spirit, put Your word on their lips and Your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted.

And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, once given to Your disciples, be Your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed You in her human image, may form them in Your divine image, by the power of Your Spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

Parish Prayer Tree

This group of men and women led by Debbie Wright takes some time every day at their own homes to pray for the needs of our parishioners and friends. Simply email your special intentions to Debbie at debndnut@aol.com or call the Parish Office at 708-895-6700 with your prayer requests, and we will pass them on to all of our Prayer Tree participants.

If you would like to join our Prayer/Phone Tree, please email Debbie. Should you need prayers for longer than 30 days, please call and reconfirm.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC PILGRIMAGE in Chicago

VICARIATE VI

Vigil Mass and Eucharistic Devotion

June 26 – 30, 2024

The National Eucharistic Revival is a three-year, grassroots initiative of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops to assist Catholics in coming to a fuller understanding and appreciation of the meaning of the Eucharist in the life of the Church. The aim is to proclaim that the celebration of the Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life, to assist Catholics to encounter the Risen Lord in the Eucharist, and to deepen their discipleship in sharing His work of redeeming the world, won on the cross.

The Revival will culminate in a pilgrimage across the country to Indianapolis for the Eucharistic Congress in July 2024. The Archdiocese of Chicago, on the Marian Route of the pilgrimage, will host pilgrims and has organized special events and Eucharistic celebrations in archdiocesan parishes and locations from June 26 to 30, 2024.
