EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME The Further Hunger (John 6:24-35)

Often, we live our lives striving for temporary happiness. But today, Jesus reminds us to “not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life.” Last week we heard about Jesus multiplying the loaves of bread and fishes for a large crowd. All who were there ate and were satisfied. The multiplication of the loaves prefigures Jesus at the Last Supper and every Eucharistic meal we celebrate at Mass. Our Eucharistic meal is the Spiritual Food that we consume — Jesus Himself, Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. It will satisfy us, as Jesus says, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.”

We all have a need to be satisfied. It is in our humanity. It might feel like something is missing in our lives, we always want more, or we are constantly looking to the next moment. The “now” is not good enough, we do not feel complete. And in that incompleteness, we grab at what surrounds us to satisfy our hearts. It could be the next job promotion, the comforts in our homes, the next trip we plan to take, the new house we want to buy, or even taking the next stage in our vocation — marriage, new baby, becoming a grandparent. The list goes on. We might think to ourselves, “then I will be happier.” Or maybe we don’t even realize how we are relying on those things or events in our lives. And while many of those things are good and bring us joy, they are only a small glimpse of the deeper, lasting happiness that the Lord offers us. They are gifts that should remind us of our Good and Gracious Creator. Instead of placing undue importance on those things or people, place it on Jesus, as He says, “Whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” He is the One who fills our hearts.

So how do we order our minds and hearts so that Jesus is our source of fulfillment? Simply by responding to His invitation to “come to Him,” we come to Jesus when we receive the Bread of Life at every Mass. The moment we receive the Eucharist, we are sustained and strengthened on our journey to eternal life. Yet to carry Jesus in our minds and hearts all week long, we must respond to His invitation to “come to Him” in other ways as well.

Jesus wants us to come to Him in daily prayer by sitting in silence. He wants us to come to Him throughout our day-to-day moments — acknowledging His presence, thanking Him for good news received, or calling on Him in a weak or hard moment. He wants us to come to Him as we serve our families, friends, and community at large, remembering that as we serve others, we are serving Christ Himself. We continuously come to Him by praising Him for His blessings and asking Him for guidance. How about one hour or even a few minutes of adoration? Our Church is open Monday through Friday. We start with Mass at 7:30 a.m. and then we lock up at 4:00 p.m. But you can come and get a code and open the Church by yourself at the time and day of your choosing.

Again, in the Gospel this weekend, Jesus declares, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst.” This is a radical and life-changing statement. Jesus is offering Himself as the ultimate nourishment for our spiritual lives. By coming to Him, believing in Him, and entering into a relationship with Him, our deepest longings are met.

So, how do we partake in this Bread of Life? It begins with faith—an active, living faith in Jesus Christ. It involves daily prayer, reading and meditating on His Word, and participating in the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, where we receive His very Body and Blood.

Moreover, being nourished by Jesus means allowing His presence to transform us. It means adopting His way of compassion, love, sacrifice, and service. As we are filled with His life, we are called to share that life with others. We become, in a sense, bread for the world, instruments of His love and grace.

As we reflect on the Gospel this weekend, let us ask ourselves these questions. What am I truly hungry for? Where am I seeking my fulfillment? Are there areas in my life where I need to turn from perishable bread to the Bread of Life? Let us ask the Lord to deepen our hunger for Him and to give us the grace to seek and receive the nourishment He offers. In doing so, we can live lives that are full—full of purpose, full of love, and full of the presence of Christ, who sustains us now and forever. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

The APC delegates include appointed lay representatives from each of the six vicariates (pastoral regions of the archdiocese) and lay organizations as well as representatives from the Presbyteral Council, Archdiocesan Women's Committee, Youth Council, pastoral associates, directors of Religious Education, religious orders, and deacons. ## Everyday Stewardship

There are times in our lives that we get the chance to see a glimpse of heaven. It may be through the love of another, loved one or stranger. Sometimes it may even be an event that seems unexplainable, perhaps even supernatural. These occurrences may be the answer to prayer or they may surprise us by coming out of nowhere. But no matter their nature or origin, they give us hope and strength to carry on through life.

When we journey on a pathway of stewardship, we are bound to experience moments of grace where we see even the smallest seeds we planted grow into something amazing. At these moments, we are reminded that God is real and that our stewardship is not in vain. The giving of our gifts and talents is not just a response to God's calling. The giving is one way that God breaks through into the lives of others. As we use what God has given us for his glory, he uses us as instruments of grace to be truly present to others.

The greatest example of this occurs at the Mass. Through the hands of an ordained priest taking the gifts of bread and wine, God is really present with us. When we then take Christ into our bodies, we accept the offer to take him into the world to others. The world cannot see Jesus in us with human eyes, but through our works of stewardship, they can see Jesus in us. One could say they even have a chance to see a glimpse of heaven.

GOSPEL

Just one day earlier, Jesus multiplied five loaves of bread and two fish to feed over five thousand people. In today's Gospel, some of those people came looking for Jesus, hoping to get another free lunch. They didn't understand that Jesus wants all people to believe in him. Through faith in Jesus, you can live forever. In heaven you will never be hungry or thirsty again.
