FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME The Calling of The First Disciples

On this Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, our readings present a theme of calling and transformation through encounters with the divine. Let us be attentive to His voice.

In the first reading (Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8), we witness the prophet Isaiah's vision of God's glory. Overwhelmed by the majesty of the Lord, Isaiah becomes acutely aware of his own unworthiness. Yet when God asks, "Whom shall I send?" Isaiah responds with courage and humility, "Here I am, send me!" This passage reminds us that God often calls us despite our imperfections, inviting us to participate in His divine mission.

In 1 Corinthians 15:1-11, Paul reflects on his own calling and transformation. He recalls how he once persecuted the Church but was transformed by the grace of God into an apostle. Paul emphasizes the importance of Christ's resurrection, which is the foundation of our faith. His life is a testament to the power of God's grace to change and empower us, no matter our past.

Finally, in the Gospel (Luke 5:1-11), we hear the story of the miraculous catch of fish. Peter, a seasoned fisherman, initially doubts Jesus' instruction to cast the nets again. Yet, he obeys and witnesses an abundance beyond imagination. In this moment, Peter recognizes his own sinfulness, but Jesus calls him to a new purpose: "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." Peter, along with James and John, leaves everything to follow Jesus.

These readings invite us to reflect on our personal encounters with God. Like Isaiah, Paul, and Peter, we may feel unworthy or hesitant. Yet, God calls each of us to a unique mission.

When we truly embrace a stewardship way of life—putting our talents, time, and treasure at the service of the Most High God—like Simon Peter in the Gospel we, too, will be astonished by what God will do. Our lives may take a direction beyond our wildest imaginations. But just as Jesus reassured Simon, "Be not afraid," He reassures us too. We need not fear a stewardship way of life. Rather, we should embrace the adventure it presents us and prepare to be astonished by what our awesome God will do.

Let us open our hearts to His transformative grace, trusting that He will equip us for the work He sets before us. May we respond with faith and courage, saying, "Here I am, Lord," ready to follow wherever He leads. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Recognize God in Ordinary Moments

The Catch

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Mini Reflection: What does it mean to lower your net? It means to listen to God, even when you don't understand Him. It means to keep trying the hard thing that you know is the right thing. It means to keep loving the person who is making life hard on you.

I love today's Gospel passage, and not just because I love a good fish fry.

I love it because I am Peter. Over and over again, I am Peter, standing here exhausted because I relied on my own abilities, and it got me nowhere. I'm ready to call it quits. I'm ready to say it's too hard. And here comes Jesus, asking me to lower my net. To keep trying.

And I try to talk sense into Him. "It's not going to work, God," I insist. "I've been trying."

"You've been trying," Jesus agrees. "But you haven't asked for my help yet."

What does it mean to lower your net? It sounds so simple and so easy, but it takes a great deal of humility and trust. I think I'm the expert on my own life, the captain of my own ship. Peter probably thought so, too — he was the fisherman, after all. Why would a fisherman listen to a carpenter on matters of fishing?

Lowering your net means giving God control and letting yourself be changed by what He chooses to show you.

It means to listen to God's instructions, even when you don't understand them, even when you find them frustrating. It means to keep trying the hard thing that you know is the right thing, even when it hasn't borne much fruit. It means to keep loving the person who is making life hard on you, even when all you want to do is give into feelings of bitterness and distrust.

If we would only lower our nets, the catch would astound us. ©LPi

2025 Annual Catholic Appeal

All are invited to spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal materials you received in the bulletin last week or in the mail at home. The Annual Catholic Appeal is much different than a one-time special collection: It is a pledged commitment to make a gift over time. Your pledge can be made payable in installments.

Each pledge makes a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services to join in with others, for "together we bring hope."

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back. This year, we also encourage our parishioners to make their Annual Catholic Appeal gifts online at annualcatholicappeal.com.

The Newman Forum is a collaboration between the Lumen Christi Institute, the University of St. Mary of the Lake, and the Archdiocese of Chicago Vocations Office. Its mission is to bring the fullness of the Church's intellectual tradition to teenagers (and their teachers and parents), remove stumbling blocks about the incompatibility of faith and reason, model an integrated intellectual and spiritual life, and prepare teenagers to be mature Catholics in college. This year, with the conference theme of “What Really Happens When...?” attendees will discover the fascinating realities of every day and misunderstood scientific, historical, literary, and religious topics. Students will meet with presenters and discuss the wonders of science, the lessons of history, the beauty of literature, and the mysteries of faith. The conference will have three sessions of “lightning-round” talks, where students can choose a talk based on their own interests. Then, after lunch, we will hold “Office Hours,” where students can bring their own questions to the presenters in an informal environment. We will close with Eucharistic Adoration. Save THE Date

Our 2nd Annual March Madness Party will take place on Saturday, March 22 at the Lansing Knights of Columbus! The details are still in progress, but here's what we do know:

1. We will enjoy a delicious dinner and basketball on the 2nd round weekend of the NCAA tournament—plenty of teams still in it at this point.
2. There will be raffles! Our planning period is relatively short, so we are seeking completed baskets/prizes for efficiency. We are also collecting beer, wine, and liquor to comprise a large Booze Basket. Contributions may be dropped off at the Parish Office during the week, or handed to any usher before Masses.
3. Do you own or work for a business that would like to sponsor our event? We are looking for donors to help cover printing costs and a modest cash raffle, and we will be happy to promote you in return. For more information, call Janice at the office: 708-895-6700.

4. All funds brought in at the event and through the cash raffle will be dedicated to the Raise for The Roof project, which we began at Giving Tuesday. As you might recall, we raised nearly $6,000 of the $10,000 we need, so let's reach that goal while we have some fun!

Thank you from your Fundraising Committee members: Ted Cap, Jennifer Gray, Dan Podgorski, and Janice Summerrise

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

GOSPEL

Jesus was powerful enough to control the fish in the sea! Peter caught no fish by himself one night. With Jesus' help, Peter caught more fish than his boat could carry. When Peter saw what Jesus did, he was afraid. How would you feel?

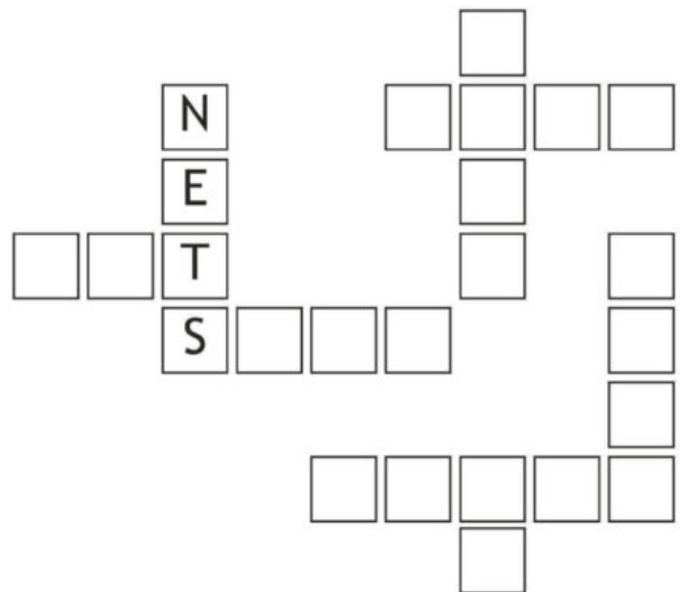

PRAYER

Dear God, your power is so amazing!

PUZZLE

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

Let your nets down to catch some fish.

DRAW

Draw fish swimming into Peter's net.

MISSION

With your parents, try turning on a lamp while it isn't plugged in. It doesn't work, does it? That's how we need to be plugged in to God, to do his work. Without him, what we try will never work.
