We apologize for any inconvenience and will resume regular 10-day advance deadlines after the holidays (April 17 for the April 27 bulletin). Thank you for your understanding and attention!

FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT: Second Scrutiny

In the Gospel story this weekend (John 9:1-41), Jesus gives the gift of sight to a blind man. But since we are not blind, we might think the Gospel story has no relevance. It is precisely because we can see that it does have relevance for us. The question is: How well do we see? Jesus healing a man born blind is a powerful narrative that speaks to spiritual awakening and transformation. As the Elect of our Parish and those around the globe undergo the second scrutiny, this passage invites them to reflect on their own journeys from darkness to light. Just as the blind man gains physical sight and spiritual insight, the Elect are called to open their hearts to the truth of Christ, shedding the blindness of sin and misunderstanding. This passage challenges us all to see with the eyes of faith, recognizing Jesus as the light of the world who illuminates our path and guides us toward a deeper relationship with God. Let us embrace this transformative light, allowing it to reveal and heal our inner blindness, leading us to live as Children of Light.

The blind man in the Gospel story saw more than the religious leaders did in the sense that he had more faith in Jesus than they had. The Pharisees had perfect eyesight, yet they had no faith in Jesus.

To see well, good eyesight alone is not sufficient. We must not think that blindness is an illness that affects the eyes only. There are many forms of blindness besides physical blindness. In some ways, these are just as crippling. Some examples:

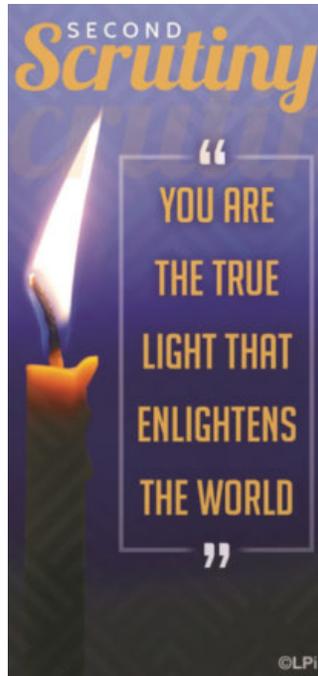

- Selfishness blinds us to the needs of others.
- Insensitivity blinds us to the hurt we're causing to others.
- Snobbery blinds us to the equal dignity of others.
- Pride blinds us to our faults.
- Prejudice blinds us to the truth.
- Hurry blinds us to the beauty of the world around us.
- Materialism blinds us to spiritual values.
- Superficiality blinds us to a person's true worth and causes us to judge by appearances.

It is not with the eyes only that we see. We also “see” with the mind, the heart, and the imagination. A narrow mind, a small heart, an impoverished imagination—all of these lead to loss of vision, darkening our lives, and shrinking our world. It has been said that the greatest tragedy is not to be born blind, but to have eyes and yet fail to see. But there is an even worse situation: to have eyes and refuse to see. The latter was the situation of the Pharisees. The most important eyes of all are the eyes of faith. The smallest child with faith sees more than the smartest scientist who has no faith. The Gospel story is essentially a faith story, the story of a man who came to faith in Jesus. The climax is where the man makes a profession of faith: “Lord, I believe.” While the blind man opened more and more to the light of faith, the Pharisees, though physically sighted, became progressively more spiritually blind. Their blindness was caused by sin. Theirs was a willful blindness, the refusal to see. The man's journey from blindness to sight symbolizes the journey from unbelief to faith, a journey from darkness to light. Physical sight is a wonderful gift that we should never take for granted. But faith is a deeper and more wonderful kind of seeing.

Paul says to the Ephesians, “Once you were in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord.” Without faith, we are in deep night and do not know where we are going. Those who have been enlightened by Christ can never again see themselves and their lives in the same light as before. Everything is lit up with an inner radiance. Faith helps us to find our way through the chaos, confusion, and darkness of the modern world. The real voyage of discovery consists not of seeking new landscapes but of having new eyes.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David. (1 Sm 16:13)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.” (Eph 5:14)

Gospel: He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” — which means Sent — . So he went and washed, and came back able to see. (Jn 9:6-7)

A NEW CHANCE TO WIN EVERY WEEK!

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

First Reading: Much to Samuel's surprise, the Lord instructed him to anoint the youngest of Jesse's sons, David, to be the next king of Israel. When have you been surprised by God?

Second Reading: Paul urges the Ephesians: "Try to learn what is pleasing to the Lord." What do you think pleases the Lord?

Gospel: Jesus' healing of the blind man created confusion, anger, and fear among some of the people witnessing this event. In a real sense, Jesus' healing exposed the blindness of others. How do we prevent ourselves from being blind to God's presence in this season of Lent?

MARCH MADNESS PARTY!

Nearly 100 of us gathered last Saturday night at the Columbian Club of Lansing to enjoy basketball and companionship. The food was great, the prizes were exciting, and we had so much fun! We've already put in a reservation for the same weekend next year, but we'll be moving to the banquet room, so we will have more space for additional activities.

Congratulations to the March Madness Cash Raffle winners, who were drawn by Fr. Mark at the party:

- $2,500 Grand Prize: Norma Rangel
- $1,000 2nd Prize: John Woestman
- $750 3rd Prize: Martin Liszewski
- $500 4th Prize: Martin Liszewski
- $250 5th Prize: Robert and Nancy Havens

In just one month's time, we managed to sell over 1,300 tickets, and we are so grateful to all of you who purchased and sold them. We could not have done it without your support! Thank you to our kind anonymous donor who supplied the prize moneys, to our sponsors who helped underwrite the expenses, and donors of prizes to the raffle.

All funds brought in at the event and through the raffle will be dedicated to the Raise for The Roof project. Of course raising money for parish needs is always important, but the value of meeting up and socializing, making new friends, and enjoying each other's company is perhaps even greater. What should we do next? Please email your suggestions to office@allsoulsparish.org.
