OUR VISION

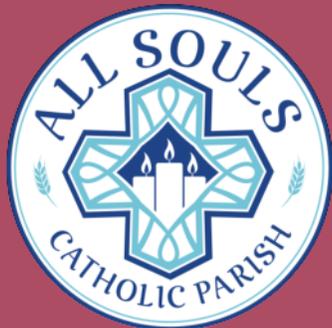

All Souls Catholic Parish aspires to be an inviting faith community where members and newcomers alike are engaged, inspired, and spiritually nourished among friends that become family.

OUR MISSION

As a welcoming and united parish, the All Souls Family of Faith is committed to loving God, loving our neighbors, and inviting others to know and serve Jesus Christ and recognize Him in one another.

Do not neglect hospitality, for through it some have unknowingly entertained angels.

— Hebrews 13:2

3rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: A Light Shines in the Dark

This Third Sunday in Ordinary Time invites the Church to contemplate how God's light enters places of darkness, calls people into communion, and summons them to active discipleship. Through the prophet Isaiah, Saint Paul, and the Gospel of Matthew, we see a single movement of grace: God shines light, gathers a divided people, and calls ordinary men and women to follow Christ and share in His mission.

A U.S. Congressman died and went to heaven. "Welcome," said St. Peter. "We seldom see Congressmen here." Then St. Peter explained, "This is how things work here. You'll spend one day in hell and one day in heaven, and then you will have to choose where you want to spend eternity." When the Congressman went to hell, he saw a golf course, clubhouse, and politician friends. They dined and reminisced. Their host, the devil, seemed very pleasant. The next day the Congressman returned to heaven where he saw many contented souls playing musical instruments and singing. "It's time to choose eternity," St. Peter said. The Congressman reflected and chose hell. Back in hell, the Congressman saw a barren land full of garbage, fire and smoke, and his friends in rags. A smiling devil greeted him. The Congressman protested, "Yesterday there was golf, lobster, champagne, and great times. What happened?" The devil replied, "Yesterday we were campaigning, today you voted."

Be sure to vote for heaven. I think the devil, the Father of Lies as Jesus calls him, tries to convince people not that hell is fun, but that there is no such place. If that were true, then all of Jesus' warnings and work to bring us into God's kingdom would be meaningless—if we're all going to end up there anyway!

Today we hear the beginning of Jesus' public ministry. Some scholars believe that originally Jesus was a follower of John the Baptist. Eventually the Baptist allowed Jesus to work independently, preaching and baptizing in the southern part of Israel near Judea while the Baptist moved north into Galilee. Then when Herod Antipas put John in prison, which is a long story in itself, Jesus replaced him in Galilee. St. Matthew sees this as a fulfillment of the prophet Isaiah that the people in Galilee will see a great light. Matthew tells us Jesus began His teaching with the same message of John the Baptist: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand." Proclaiming the coming of the kingdom of heaven or the kingdom of God is a basic mission if not the basic mission of Jesus.

This year in Cycle A we hear mostly from St. Matthew's Gospel, and we will notice that Matthew prefers to use the expression, "the kingdom of heaven," whereas the other three Gospels use the phrase, "the kingdom of God." Both phrases mean the same thing. It could be that Matthew was being extra-sensitive about not using the word God. Jews never spoke God's name, and Matthew seems to go even further and chooses almost all the time to say the kingdom of heaven. Another word for kingdom would be rule or reign, so whenever we hear the phrase "the kingdom of heaven," Jesus is talking about the reign of God. Exactly what that means is not easy to define in a few words. It refers more to an action, that God is ruling powerfully as King. This is by far an oversimplification we can understand it a little better if we consider four major principles: 1) There are good and evil forces in the world; 2) Evil forces rule the present time; 3) God will intervene in a powerful way in history, overthrow the forces of evil, and establish His good kingdom; and 4) The kingdom is imminent.

We need to point out that God is not a fearsome, remote deity but a divine king who delights in being a loving father, a father who rejoices over gathering his lost children to himself. This concept of the coming reign of God is reflected in all that Jesus did and taught. Another word for this expectation of God reclaiming God's rightful place in the world as its ruler and savior is apocalyptic. In this sense Jesus is an apocalyptic preacher/prophet who not only calls us to repent and prepare for the kingdom which is near but who also brings this kingdom into existence.

All three readings of this weekend taken together, reveal a coherent message. Isaiah announces the light that God promises; Paul insists that this light gathers people into unity, not division; and Matthew shows the light in the person of Jesus, calling disciples to follow and to share in His work in the Kingdom of heaven. This Third Sunday in Ordinary Time therefore calls each of us to reflect on three questions:

- Where do I need Christ's light to break through darkness in my life?
- What divisions, within myself or my community, need healing in Christ?
- What nets am I being asked to leave in order to follow Jesus more fully?

Christ still walks along the shores of our lives, speaking the same simple words: "Follow me." Those who respond discover that the light not only changes their own darkness but also sends them forth to illuminate the world.

As we continue in Ordinary Time, these readings remind us that Christian life is never ordinary. It is a journey from darkness to light, from division to communion, and from hearing the call to living the mission of Christ every day. Amen.

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today's Readings

First Reading: The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; (Is 9:1)

Psalms: The Lord is my light and my salvation. (Ps 27)

Second Reading: I urge you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree in what you say, and that you be united in the same mind and in the same purpose. (1 Cor 1:10)

Gospel: He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled. (Mt 4:13-14)

TOGETHER WE BRING LIGHT

2026 Annual Catholic Appeal

The Annual Catholic Appeal theme for 2026 is Together we bring light. It stems from Jesus' words to his early disciples and to us: "You are the light of the world." (Matthew 5:14) We understand our responsibility to bring light to a world that seems often covered in darkness. Contributions to the Appeal enable us to bring light to those in need. We do not do this alone but together as the Body of Christ. Our Church finds the fulfillment of her mission when we support the Appeal and the ministries of teaching, sanctifying, and bringing pastoral care to those in need. Truly, together we do bring light.

Please consider supporting this year's Appeal. Your generous contribution will be a source of blessing for many people, for yourself, and for your loved ones.

Many of you have already received the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Cardinal Cupich. On behalf of those served by the ministries, parishes, and schools that receive funding from the Appeal, we thank you for your gifts. Please return your response as soon as possible. The Annual Catholic Appeal offers a wonderful opportunity to answer the call: "Together We Bring Light." In addition to providing for ministries and services throughout the archdiocese, the Appeal also funds services that are of great help here in our own parish. As we contemplate God's many gifts to us, we should also reflect on our gratitude. Your financial support for the work of our parish, our archdiocese, and the Church throughout the world is one way to express this gratitude. Please give what you can to the 2026 Annual Catholic Appeal.

✦ This weekend we take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. Many people in Latin America and the Caribbean lack access to church programs and ministries because of a rising secular culture, rugged rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers. Your generosity enables our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean to share in the life of the Church and grow closer to Christ. Please be generous in the special collection. To learn more, please visit usccb.org/latin-america. iGiveCatholic also accepts funds for this collection if you prefer to donate online (see QR code).

✦ If you are a supporter of our recycling efforts, please note that the dumpsters near Fr. Mark's home are for PAPER only. Lately, they have been stuffed with cardboard, and the company will not take anything but paper, which will necessitate clearing out the unacceptable materials ourselves. Thank you for your participation and cooperation.

GENERATION TO GENERATION: ANSWER THE CALL CAMPAIGN AT All Souls Parish!

All Souls' participation in the Generation to Generation: Answer the Call campaign, along with all parishes in the Archdiocese of Chicago, will meet the needs of our own parish and support Catholic ministries in Cook and Lake counties.

Our goal at All Souls is to raise $530,000 in pledges payable over five (5) years from our parish families. Fifty percent of the funds from these pledges will go toward the parish needs listed below. The remaining fifty percent will go towards spiritually renewing our church, supporting our priests, and assisting vulnerable communities.

When you receive your invitation to participate in this historic effort, please pray and discern a multi-year sacrificial pledge that is right for your family. Today, join us in praying for the success of the Generation to Generation campaign.

CAMPAIGN PRAYER

God of abundant and generous mercy, we gratefully acknowledge the many gifts you have given us across the years from the sacrifice of generations before us.

And so, we confidently trust that you will walk with us into the future.

We echo the words of the Blessed Virgin Mary: truly, your mercy is from generation to generation.

Help us now to respond generously to your gifts, as we support our Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago and work to bring faith forward for the generations that follow us.

By your grace and help, let our gifts be a blessing for our children, our grandchildren, and those who follow them.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen

What is Family Mass at All Souls Catholic Parish?
It is a monthly celebration in which our Religious Education students have a first-hand opportunity to participate actively by performing the roles of lectors and ushers! We sincerely hope that our families will attend Mass and participate from the pews every week, not just on Family Mass Sundays. Your friends are invited, too!

Our Next Children's Liturgy is Sunday,
February 1
at 10:30 a.m. Mass

All children present are invited to come to the front of church when the priest calls them forward together with the catechists for a blessing. They are then dismissed to the chapel to hear the Sunday readings and reflect on the Gospel in terms they can understand. The children rejoin the congregation in time for the Profession of Faith.

GOSPEL

Today's Gospel talks about people living in darkness. When you think about darkness, you may also think about stumbling, falling, or even being afraid. That's what your life could be like without God. You could stumble around trying to find love or happiness, but without God you will only fall. Jesus brings light into a dark, unhappy world. With Jesus, you no longer need to fall, and you don't need to be afraid. God loves you.
