FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT: Christ, The Light of The World

The Fourth Sunday of Lent is traditionally called “Laetare Sunday,” which is Latin for “Rejoice.” The Church invites us to rejoice because the light of Easter is drawing near. Laetare Sunday offers a brief moment of encouragement. It reminds the faithful that Easter is near, the darkness of sin does not have the final word, and Christ’s victory is approaching.

Today’s readings present a series of striking contrasts — God’s vision versus human vision, the light of Christ versus the darkness of sin, and spiritual blindness versus spiritual sight. Together, they invite us to examine how we see our lives and remind us that a stewardship way of life helps us see as God sees and reflect Christ’s light to others.

In the Gospel story, Jesus gives the gift of sight to a blind man. But since we are not blind, we might think that the this story has no relevance for us. It is precisely because we can see that it has importance for us. The question is: how well do we see? The blind man saw more than the religious leaders, in the sense that he had more faith in Jesus than they had. The Pharisees had perfect eyesight, yet they had no faith in Jesus. To see well, good eyesight alone is not sufficient. We must not think that blindness is an illness that affects the eyes only. There are many forms of blindness besides physical blindness. In some ways these are just as crippling; Here are some examples:

- Selfishness blinds us to the needs of others.
- Insensitivity blinds us to the hurt we’re causing to others. Snobbery blinds us to the equal dignity of others. Pride blinds us to our own faults. Prejudice blinds us to the truth.
- Hurry blinds us to the beauty of the world around. Materialism blinds us to spiritual values.
- Superficiality blinds us to a person’s true worth and causes us to judge others by appearances.
- It is not with the eyes only that we see. We also ‘see’ with the mind, the heart, and the imagination.

A narrow mind, a small heart, an impoverished imagination, all of these lead to loss of vision, darken our lives and shrink our world. It has been said that the greatest tragedy is not to be born blind, but to have eyes and yet fail to see.

But there is an even worse situation: to have eyes and refuse to see. The latter was the situation of the Pharisees.

The most important eyes of all are the eyes of faith. The smallest child with faith sees more than the smartest scientist who has no faith. The Gospel story is essentially the story of a man who came to faith in Jesus. The climax of the story is where the man makes a profession of faith: “Lord, I believe.” While the blind man opened more and more to the light of faith, the Pharisees, though physically sighted, became progressively more spiritually blind. Their blindness was caused by sin. There was a willful blindness: the refusal to see.

The man’s journey from blindness to sight symbolizes the journey from unbelief to faith, which is a journey from darkness to light. Physical sight is a wonderful gift which we should never take for granted. But faith is a deeper and more wonderful kind of seeing.

Paul says to the Ephesians, “Once you were in darkness, but now you are light in the Lord.” Without faith we are in deep night and do not know where we are going. Those who have been enlightened by Christ can never again see themselves and their lives in the same light as before. Everything is lit up with an inner radiance. Faith helps us to find our way through the chaos, confusion, and darkness of the modern world. The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes but in having new eyes. Amen

Fr. Mark Kalema, Pastor

Today’s Readings

First Reading: Then Samuel, with the horn of oil in hand, anointed David in the presence of his brothers; and from that day on, the spirit of the LORD rushed upon David. (1 Sm 16:13)

Psalm: The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading: “Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give you light.” (Eph 5:14)

Gospel: He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and smeared the clay on his eyes, and said to him, “Go wash in the Pool of Siloam” — which means Sent — .So he went and washed, and came back able to see. (Jn 9:6-7)

Reflect & Respond to Scripture

1st Reading Question

Samuel does not expect the Lord to anoint the young David as Israel's next king. When have you been surprised by God doing something unexpected in your life?

2nd Reading Question

Paul expects the believers in Ephesus to live as children of light and learn what is pleasing to the Lord. What could you do this week that is pleasing to the Lord?

Gospel Question

Jesus' healing of the blind man causes confusion and even anger to those who do not see him as the Christ. Have you seen or felt God's presence in this season of Lent?

THE DMI SURVEY IS OPEN NOW!

If you're an All Souls parishioner and haven't already taken the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey, NOW is the time! It's the very important first step in growing in our discipleship. We are currently assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities, and need your response to help strengthen our parish and better prepare us for the future - as we strive to reflect more of Christ's love in our community.

For the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) survey, please visit <https://survey.catholicleaders.org/d/p3d248> or scan the QR code below.

The 10–15-minute survey will be available all during Lent and will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide your perspective on our parish's efforts to help you grow in relationship with Christ. All responses will be confidential, and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole. Paper surveys are also available for those who do not have the ability to complete the survey online.

Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so our parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

We haven't had an Easter Egg Hunt at All Souls in several years, but we decided to bring it back in memory of longtime sacristan and all-around devoted helper, Cindy Hope, who loved this event! To make the day a success, we are seeking donations of candy and little trinkets, as well as plastic eggs to put them in. Contributions may be brought to the Parish Office or left in the marked bin in the Narthex.

We are also in need of volunteers to help with the fun that day! If you can assist, please call the Parish Office at 708-895-6700 or email office@allsoulsatholicparish.org to leave your contact information. Thank you!
