THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME: Parable of the Lamps

Dear family of faith, today's readings invite us to live with wisdom, hope, and readiness. The Book of Wisdom (Wis 6:12-16) tells us that wisdom is radiant and unfailing. She is found by those who seek her, and she comes to meet those who desire her. Wisdom is more than knowing many things. It is learning to see life as God sees it. It is to recognize what matters, to choose what leads to life, and to remain faithful even when the way is not easy. The person who seeks God's wisdom does not wait until everything is settled. He or she begins seeking now, with an open and attentive heart.

Saint Paul's words (1Thess 4:13-18) speak to a community grieving the death of loved ones. He does not tell them not to grieve. Rather, he reminds them not to grieve "as others do who have no hope." Our Christian hope is not a denial of sorrow; it is the confidence that sorrow and death do not have the final word. Because Jesus died and rose again, we believe that those who have died in Christ will also share in His life. This hope does not remove the pain of loss, but it can sustain us within it. We entrust our loved ones to the mercy of God, who is stronger than death.

In the Gospel (Mt 25:1-13), Jesus tells the parable of ten bridesmaids waiting for the bridegroom. All ten bring lamps, and all ten grow tired as the wait continues. But only five brought enough oil. When the bridegroom arrives, those who are ready enter the wedding feast, and the door is shut. What lamp are we talking about? Essentially, it is the lamp of love. Love, to be genuine, doesn't have to be extraordinary. What we need is to love without getting tired or cynical. How does a lamp burn? Through a continuous input of small drops of oil. If the drops of oil cease, the lamp will go out. What are these drops of oil in our lamps? They are the small things of daily life: faithfulness, punctuality, small words of kindness, a thought for others, our way of being silent, of looking, of speaking, and of acting. These are the drops of love that keep our religious life burning like a lively flame.

Jesus shared our life, our loneliness, our anguish, our death. He is not far away from us. He is very close to us. He walks with us. We can touch, serve, and love Him every day of our lives. With the oil of prayer and good works, we must keep the lamp of faith burning, and He will recognize us. We won't be judged on a momentary lapse, but on our life as a whole. Since we do not know the day nor the hour of the Lord's coming, we must be prepared so that when He arrives, we can enter His kingdom. To be prepared means to be a doer rather than a mere hearer of the Word. All that Jesus says to us in this parable is meant as a warning. This warning is a sign of His love for us. It tells us that every moment should be beautiful and that the soul should always be ready for the coming of the bridegroom, always waiting for the voice of the Beloved.

The bridesmaids did not know the exact hour of the bridegroom's arrival. Neither do we know all that the future will bring. Jesus does not tell this parable to make us anxious, but to teach us to live attentively. Being ready does not mean constantly fearing the end. It means welcoming Christ in the ordinary moments of the present in our family life, our work, our parish, and in the people who need our kindness. This is especially meaningful as we approach the end of the Church year. The readings turn our hearts toward the Lord's coming, but they also ask how we are living today. Are we seeking wisdom, or simply following whatever is easiest? Are we allowing Christian hope to steady us in grief and uncertainty? Are our lamps being nourished by a real life of faith?

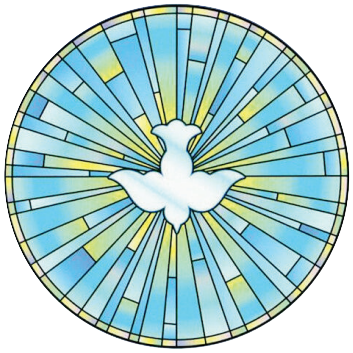

This week and beyond, we can live these readings in simple, concrete ways: set aside time each day for prayer and seek God's wisdom before making important choices; bring hope to someone who is grieving or discouraged; and keep our lamps burning through a deliberate act of love, forgiveness, or service. We cannot choose the hour when Christ comes, but we can choose to meet Him faithfully in the people and responsibilities before us today.

According to our Jewish sage, wisdom is a virtue that desires to be known by those who seek her. How does anyone know they have found wisdom?

2nd Reading Question
Paul offers hope in the bodily resurrection of the dead for the Thessalonians who are grieving the death of a loved one. How does your faith in Jesus sustain you in times of grief and distress?

Gospel Question
In the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of planning ahead for the unknown. Do you consider yourself a pre-planner?

- Reconciliation is available in the day chapel every Saturday beginning at 3:00 p.m. The last confession will be heard at 3:45 as Father needs time to pray with the ministers before 4:00 p.m. Mass. Reconciliation is also available on weekdays by appointment, and Advent Reconciliation will take place on Monday, November 30.
- The All Souls Women's Christmas Luncheon is less than a month away. It will be held on Wednesday, December 2 from noon until 3:00 p.m. at J.J. Kelley's. - IT'S NOT TOO LATE TO JOIN! Alpha at All Souls is running on Wednesday evenings through January 13 with weeks off during the holidays. Sessions begin with a light supper followed by a video presentation and small group discussions. All adults 20 and older are invited to join, so bring a friend! Register today at the QR code below or at bit.ly/AlphaOct26

Is the Bible relevant today? Is there more to life than this? Do you ever pray? Who was Jesus? What does faith mean to you?

At Alpha, you can ask anything—it's a safe space to question life, faith, and meaning. Everyone is welcome.

You're invited no matter your background or beliefs. Alpha is free, and there's no pressure to come back.

Do you love the way the Church looks when it is all dressed up for Christmas? Do you feel somber awe when you see the tomb set up for Easter? Seasonal décor is extremely important as it sets a mood that invites participation in the mystery of each liturgical event. And none of this happens by accident—it takes thoughtful planning on the part of the Art & Environment team and then many hands to help with the execution of the plans. Many A&E members have been with this ministry for a very long time and are now in need of additional assistance. Are you willing to lend a hand?

Please email office@allsoulscatholicparish.org or call the office at 708.895.6700 to express your interest, and we will let you know when our next planning meeting is set.

Holy Souls Bereavement

Help us celebrate the joy of Christ's birth through music! We invite parishioners of all experience levels to join our Christmas Choir.

Whether you are a seasoned singer or simply love to sing, we would be delighted to have you share your gifts with our All Souls community. Rehearsals will begin in November. For more information or to sign up, please see Lori Moreland after any weekend Mass or call the office and leave your contact info.

Christmas is the season of giving, and what better way to give to those less fortunate than to be a part of our Giving Tree Ministry event! Giving Trees will be on display in the St. Ann Narthex after the November 14 & 15 Masses. Gift recipients will be available on a first come, first served basis. Our Giving Tree leaders ask that all parishioners who take a tag from one of the trees please give their name, phone number, and card number to them on the provided labels. Purchase your $20-25 gift (no gift cards please), wrap it, secure the provided tag to it, and return it to the Chapel on December 12 or 13 no later than at 10:30 a.m. Mass on Sunday. This is very important, as our volunteers will be sorting them for pickup right after Mass. Please note: We can accept your gift AT CHURCH the weekend of December 12 and 13 only, and not before. If you cannot get to the Chapel that weekend, please bring your gift to the Parish Office the week of December 7-11. If you would like to help sort presents and ready them for delivery, please come to the Chapel after the 10:30 Mass on December 13. Thank you for your participation in this wonderful holiday tradition!
